Charlie Chan Is Starred At Lyric in 'Dark Alibi'

Charlie Chan comes to the Lyric theatre again with another of those innumerable cases he has solved. "Dark Alibi" provides plenty of action and mystery for all fans who like to test their sleuthing powers. The film takes one back into the darkest recesses of crime to bring

The film takes one pack into the darkest recesses of crime to bring out the whys of homicide. Sharing the billing is "Trail Beyond." Both films are scheduled to open Tuesday.

For the thousands who read the book, "Kitty," the film at the Ohio which stars Paulette Goddard and Ray Millarid, will bring those extra added touches of humor to life. The picture has been well received by Lima audiences and is living up to its past reviews. At the Quilna the film "The Renegades" has been getting applause, especially from fans of western movies. The film is a typical western, bringing with it all the charm and beauty that was the West's in days of old. The picture is in technicolor.

Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake do some sleuthing in the film, "The Blue Dahlia," now showing at the Sigma. In their first film together since "This Gun for Hire," the couple turns in performances which again push the film ratings of each to the top of the screen ladder.

"The Seventh Cross" with Spencer Tracy, closes at the Majestic after a two-day engagement. The film told of a German who did not believe in the Nazi ways and of his successful escape by way of the underground. Sharing the billing was "None but the Lonely Heart." "Tomorrow Is Forever" with Orson Welles. Claudette Colbert and George Brent is the film now showing at the State. A sturing picture, it tells of a woman whose husband failed to return after World War I. All roles are played extremely well.

Johnny Weismuller has the leading role in "Tarzan and the Green Goddess," the film now showing at the Allen. It is cofeatured with "Sing Me a Song of Texas '

"Prisoner of Zenda" and "Adventures of Rusty" are the two films now showing at the Lima, Drive-In while the Glora Drive-In Arms Traffic is featuring "Murder My Sweet" Arms Traffic with Dick Powell.
