

'The Blue Dahlia' Held Over At Sigma Until Saturday

"The Blue Dahlia," the exciting murder-mystery melodrama which has been thrilling audiences of the Sigma theatre ever since its opening Saturday, will carry on for a few more days after word was received of its being held over.

The plot revolves around the murder of Alan Ladd's wife, Doris Dowling, by person or persons unknown until the suspenseful climax. Ladd, with William Bendix and Hugh Beaumont, had returned home from the war to find his wife involved with another man, Howard da Silva, night club owner. When he learns, too, that her drinking had been responsible for the death of their son, he walks out on her.

For a relief from the type of movies which often times may seem depressing, the film "Kitty" at the Ohio theatre is good to be prescribed medicine. The picture stars Paulette Goddard and Ray Milland and presents one of the most unusual stories ever to be filmed.

At the Quilma. "The Renegades" have taken over full force and are leading audiences a nightly race in suspense. The picture tells of a girl who turns robber and rides with her husband as any renegade seeking something to plunder. It's exciting and breathtaking, having been filmed in glorious technicolor to capture the beauty of the times.

Claudette Colbert has the leading role in "Tomorrow Is Forever" now showing at the State theatre. George Brent and Orson Welles also have leading roles in the film. Sharing the billing is "It Happened in New Orleans."

Charlie Chan brings some of his sleuthing ideas to the Lyric theatre where currently he is to be seen in "Dark Abibi." Sharing the billing at the theatre is "Trail Beyond."

"Sing Me A Song of Texas" and "Tarzan and The Green Goddess" are the films currently showing at the Allen theatre. Coming Wednesday are "Arizona" and "The Gorilla."

"The Strange Mr. Gregory" and "Blonde From Brooklyn" are the two films scheduled to open at the Lima Drive-In theatre Wednesday while the Gloria Drive-In theatre will open with "Having A Wonderful Crime."

OUT OUR WAY

Despite its great length, the neck of a giraffe is not long enough to reach the ground. Maine is the only one of the United States that adjoins only one other state.

Ronald Colman Is Narrator For 'Encore Theatre' Drama

Ronald Colman will be starred as narrator when "Yellow Jack," the story of the conquest of yellow fever, is told on "Encore Theatre" at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over CBS. The story tells how the cause and cure of the dread tropical disease were found, thanks to the heroism of men who volunteered to be inoculated and serve as human guinea pigs.

The remarkable appearance of a Hollywood movie producer, who has withstood the ravages of time to the extent that he looks exactly as he did 15 years ago, is but one of the unusual factors in "The Case of the Make-Believe Robbery," to be heard on "Nick Carter, Master Detective," at 7 p. m. Tuesday over MBS.

Nick, as played by Lon Clark, investigates the theft of some motion picture film, but finds that he is searching for a murderer who he runs across a pair of sun glasses, a few blonde hairs and a ferocious dog—who diets exclusively on hot dogs.

Appearing as guest ghoul behind the cracking door, Radio Headliner Santos Ortega discovers that a jealous wife's suspicions can become too grimly true in "The Suspense Laden 'Inner Sanctum' mystery to be broadcast at 8 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

All this badgered husband wants to do is while away some leisure hours in a bowling alley, but the "bauger game" catches up with him—and before he can call "square" the score is three corpses. When a very rich young man is confronted by a photograph of himself posing with the dead body of a girl he didn't murder, it's a slight case of blackmail until he enlists the aid of Mike (The Falcon) Waring in unraveling a $10,000 extortion case in "Murder Is the Payoff," latest episode in "The Adventures of The Falcon" at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday over MBS.

FOOD FUND GRANTED
TOKYO, June 18—(AP)—The Japan Electric Power Co. today granted 80 per cent of the 40,000,000 yen ($2,633,000) food allotment fund demand by its workers, ending a three-week-old labor dispute and ending the threat of a nationwide blackout from a strike.

York Strikes Oil On Tennessee Farm
NASHVILLE, Tenn. June 18—(AP)—World War I Hero Alvin C. York, has struck oil near his home at Pall Mall, Tenn., and State Geologist H. B. Burwell said today it is "one of the better wells in that area."

York Strikes Oil On Tennessee Farm
Burwell said the well is turning out "a very good grade of oil," but that he had not completed tests to determine the exact gravity. York said his 722-foot well pumped oil at 13 barrels an hour. The strike will not make York a million dollars, Burwell said, but "if there's enough oil there" it will make him "maternally wealthier."
