

'The Blue Dahlia' at Sigma Accepted by Fans as Unusual

It remains a mystery to your reviewer whether Lima fans have been privileged—ever—to see such a mystery thriller as now is on display at the Sigma theatre.

The film, "The Blue Dahlia," with Alan Ladd, William Bendix and Veronica Lake, is of the unusual type with just that extra punch that makes it good. The three leading players have put suspense with a capital "S" into the film now going into its fifth day of a successful seven-day engagement.

Another film which guarantees plenty of action is "The Renegades" now showing at the Quilna theatre with Willard Parker and Evelyn Keyes; also "One Exciting Week," with Willard Parker and Evelyn Keyes in the leading roles. For the Western fans, it's the treat of the year.

Next on the docket is "Kitty" at the Ohio theatre which offers some good entertainment. With Ray Milland and Paulette Goddard in the leading roles, the film begins with a bang, going back into history to the 18th century.

Chaudette Colbert, Orson Welles and George Brent turn in praiseworthy performances in "Tomorrow is Forever," the film currently playing at the State theatre. An unforgettable story is to be found in this film which will take folks back to the completion of World War I.

Charlie Chan brings his case of the "Dark Alibi" to the Lyric theatre with "Trail Beyond." Both pictures furnish lots of action for those who demand plenty of that background in their film fare. "Arizona" and "The Gorilla" with the Ritz brothers are the current features at the Allen theatre. Bowing in Friday at the show house will be "Fighting Seabees" and "Oregon Trail."

Lima Drive-in theatre has a double feature consisting of "The Strange Mr. Gregory" and "Blonde from Brooklyn" on tap while the Gloria Drive-in fare is "Having a Wonderful Crime" with Pat O'Brien.

'Giddy' Is Crosby's Guest On Wednesday's Broadcast

The Great Gildersleeve, known to his friends as Hal Peary, will be the comedy guest on the Bob Crosby show at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Hal Peary made his radio debut as a Spanish troubadour. Finding many other male singers struggling along, he changed over to comedy.

David Rose's springboard to fame, his pulsing melody "Holiday for Strings," will be highlighted in a new arrangement by the composer-conductor for his weekly original contribution to the "Holiday for Music" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Rose wrote the musical hit in 45 minutes. His records alone have exceeded a million. He had used it as a keyboard device to escape playing the piano at Hollywood parties.

Inspector Richard Queen, Ellyery's father, wants Cokey Cox to sing in the worst way and the Cokey is no Caruso, his song will jail a dangerous mob for 20 years.

Touching on two popular topics, Ruth Davy sings "Come Rain or Come Shine" and "Shoo Fly, Pie" as her contribution to the fun and frolic under the guidance of Bert Lahr on the "Fresh-Up Show" at 7:30 p. m. over MBS.

Mr. Fuddle, played by John Gibson, Mrs. Fuddle, played by Pert Kelton, and Alan Bunce join in the fun that centers around the Sunny Dale drug store.

Pastor Gives Sample Brotherly Love, Dies

VAN DYKE, Mich., June 19—(UP)—While preaching a sermon on "brotherly love," the Rev. Walter T. Pate, 58, pastor of the Church of God, stepped down in his audience to demonstrate what he meant.

"I'll show you what real brotherly love is," he said, sitting down beside a man and embracing him. He kissed the man and stood up.

"That is really brotherly love," he said, and dropped dead of a heart attack.
