nsurance Tax Test Dismissed

> Martin Holds State Law's Validity Upheld

Atty. Gen. John E. Martin announced today that the suit of the Lincoln National Life Insuance Co., which had challenged the legality of Wiscensin insurance tax laws, was dismissed Tuesday.

The company was one of eight who had filed suits in Dane county circuit court to seek recovery of insurance taxes paid by them

Martin said the validity of Wisconsin's insurance tax law appeared to be established by a recent U. S. supreme court decision upholding state laws which taxed out-of-state insurance companies differently than domestic compa-several other of the pending cases have been signed and it is anticipated that all the cases will be dismissed as a result of the federal supreme court decisions.

The insurance companies which filed stuff in Wisconsin claimed the state law violated the constitutional provision which prohibits placing a burden on interstate commerce. Wisconsin collects about $2,500,000 annually in taxes from out-of-state insurance companies.

Support Housing Bill,

The Madison Housing Authority (MHA), informed in a telephone call from Washington Tuesday that the Wagner-Taft-Ellender housing bill is in "crucial danger" of defeat, sent telegrams to Rep. Ropert Henry and the chairman of the house banking and currency committee, urging them to support the measure.

The MHA wires held passage of the bill "vitally essential" in solving the housing emergency.
