

Murder Witness Missing; Plans of Gang Boss Upset

Private investigator Richard Rogue (Dick Powell) tries to hold out the key witness in a murder trial, upsetting the plans of the murderer's brother, who happens to be a big operator with more connections than a postwar vacuum cleaner, during "Missing Witness," latest episode in the thrilling detective series "Rogue's Gallery." The program is heard at 7:30 p. m. Thursday over MBS.

June Duprez is the star when "Suspense," radio's "theatre of thrills," presents "Your Devoted Wife," in a broadcast at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS. The story centers around a woman solicited about her husband's failing health—particularly since he will inherit a fortune if he lives until his next birthday.

Edward Everett Horton, who writes his name "Eddie," and Eddy Duchin, who spells it with a "y" are sharing the spotlight on the summer edition of the Music Hall at 8 p. m. Thursday over NBC. The musical portion will feature Duchin playing a medley of "You Are Too Beautiful" and "Sometimes I'm Happy."

Tearing into another of those soul-searing ballads that left no eye dry in the old music halls,

Beatrice Kay renders "The Curse of an Aching Heart" at 9 p. m. Thursday over MBS.

With the help of co-star Peter Lind Hayes, newest Broadway comedy sensation, bumptious Bea will also lace into "Concert in the Park" during the roistering routine in which they play hapless instructors at Patch's dramatic school for backward thespians.

3 Bluffton Teaching Posts Will Be Filled

BLUFFTON, June 20—Three Bluffton schools teaching posts are to be filled soon. Vacancies are those created by resignation of Miss Annabelle Weed, home economics instructor, who will move with her parents to Mechanicsburg; Paul Stauffer, speech and dramatics teacher, who will be employed at the Triplet Instrument Co.; Mrs. Floyd McBain Koenig, who was married recently.

KENTON, ALGER SCHOOL TEACHING POSTS FILLED

KENTON, June 20—Mrs. May Wroten, Kenton, who has taught the third grade in Alger, has resigned to accept employment in Kenton schools. Joanne Ankerman, named to succeed Mrs. Wroten, is a daughter of Fred Ankerman, Alger, and attended Bowling Green university. Mrs. Jane Davis Butler will teach home economics at both Alger and McGuffey schools. She replaces Miss Laura Ebersole, resigned.

Princess Elizabeth's Engagement May Be Announced Early in '47

LONDON, June 20—(INS)—Reports again were current today that the engagement of Princess Elizabeth, heiress presumptive to the British crown, may be announced before the royal family's official tour of South Africa early next year. One unconfirmed report suggested that the engagement announcement might be fairly imminent.

Chief reason for the recurrence of the rumors is the reappearance in England of a handsome, 27-year-old captain, the Earl of Euston, whose name for more than a year has been associated with Elizabeth's marital future. It may be no more than a coincidence but Euston is house guest at Windsor Castle for the Ascot race week and yesterday drove in the same royal carriage with Elizabeth to the race track. At the track, he was in close attendance on the princess in the royal box.

Romantic gossip has seized upon this as certain indication of Euston's favor with the royal family since Elizabeth's carriage was second in the royal procession and also contained her aunt, Princess Royal.

The earl, eldest son and heir of the very wealthy Duke of Grafton, has known Elizabeth several years and was one of the original group of grenadier guards which has acted as her escort in social affairs since she first "came out."

As a young man of title, good family and wealthy background, he is one of the outstanding members of a small group of eligible bachelors in England. In the past year he has been aide de camp to Viceroy of India Wavell.

One report regarding his future suggested he may be appointed one of the king's aides on the South African tour which begins in February and ends in Capetown Apr. 20, the day before Elizabeth's 21st birthday.

FIREMEN AT MEET
DELPHOS, June 20—Delphos Volunteer Firemen-asmn attended the Northwestern Ohio volunteer department convention at Ashland yesterday. A chartered bus carried the Delphos group on the trip with Lee Vogt and Robert Dienstberger representing Delphos as delegates to a business session.

RAIN DAMAGES CROPS
DELPHOS, June 20—Heavy rains are causing damage to the main crops in this area and low land is flooded. Growers of peas for commercial canning are experiencing difficulty in harvesting the early crop. Farmers report late soybean acreage will be replanted in almost every case.
