

William Powell Joins Regulars In Return Performance Here

William Powell joins the regulars who have been holding the film limelight for the past few years in "Hoodlum Saint."

It's the riotous story which long has been awaited by film fans to make its return to a Lima screen. Besides Powell, Esther Williams and Angela Lansbury are cast in major supporting roles. The film opens at the State theatre Thursday.

Scheduled to wind up a week's stay at the Ohio theatre Thursday is "Janie Gets Married" with Joan Leslie and Robert Hutton. Contributing another successful engagement to the log of the theatre, the film proved to be of exceptional interest not only to newly-weds but to many of the old and young alike.

"Cluny Brown" at the Quilna theatre has been getting applause from all corners ever since its opening there Friday. With Jennifer Jones and Charles Boyer in the leading roles, the film displays a unique plot which will keep you, just as it has others, going in circles, until the film is finished.

Paulette Goddard, again in the role of a servant, turns in an outstanding performance as Celestine in "The Diary of a Chambermaid" now showing at the Sigma theatre. The co-feature, "Avalanche," is a good film, too, with Bruce Cabot in the leading role as a special investigator for the U. S. Treasury Department.

Bowing out Wednesday will be the exciting film, "She Wouldn't Say Yes" with Rosalind Russell and Lee Bowman in the leading roles. Coming Thursday will be "Thundertown" with Bob Steele and "The Fighting Guardsman."

Humphrey Bogart currently is to be seen in "Sahara" at the Allen theatre. Cast in the role which calls for a tough, hardened creature, Bogart expertly plays the role of a "T" Sharing the billing at the show house is "Destroyer" with Edward G. Robinson.

The Lima Drive-In theatre now is showing "Sing Neighbor, Sing" with Lulubelle and Scotty, also "Road to Alcatraz" with Robert Lowery and June Storey. Currently playing at the Gloria Drive-In theatre is "Topper" with Cary Grant in that memorable role with Constance Bennett as his co-star.

LANDS 5/8 POUND BASS ST. MARYS, June 26—Conny Wiseman of New Bremen landed a five and a half pound bass at Lake St. Marys. He caught the fish in the harbor near the state office at the lake.

The cap screws that fasten the radiator to the frame should be tightened frequently, as they tend to loosen with time.

Miss Ness is picking the all-male cast which will give the play here two nights for the benefit of the AMVETS welfare fund.

"MAKE MOVIE HISTORY"—Unique in cinematic history is the opportunity Glenn Ford has to make love to not one—but two—Bette Davis in "A Stolen Life," opening Friday at the Ohio theatre. The double measure of romance is due to the fact that the screen actress plays a dual role—that of twin sisters—in the film, which also features Dane Clark, Walter Brennan and Charlie Ruggles in supporting roles.

Your GI Rights

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
WASHINGTON, June 26—(NEA)—Relatives of GIs and veterans have sent in the following questions:
Q—I am the mother of a boy about to be drafted. I have a feeling that, if he is sent overseas for duty with the occupation forces, something will happen to him and he won't come home. I had that same feeling when one of my other sons was drafted during the war. He was killed. Is there any way I can keep my youngest son from being sent overseas?
A—Yes. The War Department has announced that men who had brothers killed during the war can apply for duty in the States.
Q—My son has been in service more than 18 months. He wants to go to school and become a lawyer. Is there any way I can get him out of the service and into school?
A—No.
Q—My brother served overseas for two years. He was wounded and was in a hospital for a long time. When he was finally released from the service, he was given a monthly pension for the disability he suffered. As soon as he got out, he went back to his old job, where he was given work which didn't bother him. He has been doing fine. Does this mean his pension will be stopped?
A—No.
Q—My son was drafted a few days after he was graduated from high school. He has served two years and is now eligible for discharge. He writes that he plans to have a loan guaranteed and start a farm. I heard that one of my neighbor's boys wanted to do the same thing, but discovered he was too young to get a loan. Is there an age limit? I do not want my son to be too disappointed. What should I do?
A—In some states, a vet has to be a certain age in order to get a loan. Call any local loan office or bank to learn the answer to your question.
(Questions will be answered only in this space—not by mail.)
Birds have the highest body temperatures of all creatures—104 to 110° Fahrenheit.

Looking At HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, June 26—(NEA)—An Egyptian man-charmer was a novelty to us.
We met an Egyptian snake-charmer once, and later learned that she was born in Chicago and sold ladies' underwear in a Michigan-av store before going into the business of charming snakes.
Tahia Kerim, the Egyptian man-charmer, was legitimate.
She's Egypt's top movie queen, and has starred in 29 pictures there since 1939.
"She's really hot stuff in Egypt," her husband told us while Tahia giggled. "The theatre admission prices go up from 40 to 80 cents when her pictures play in Cairo."
Tahia is honeymooning in Hollywood with Gilbert Levy, a former Army officer from Newark, N. J. They met in Cairo, where he was a lieutenant colonel in ordnance for three years.
"She danced at the Officers' Club one night," Levy said, "and I whistled the loudest."
Sure, black-haired, big-eyed Tahia would like to appear in a Hollywood movie.
"But only if I can dance," she said. "I must always dance."
The look on Levy's face indicated she was quite a dancer.
"But I don't think her dance would pass the censors," he said.
His heart is Big Too Jimmy Durante, who just celebrated his 30th anniversary in show business, is known as the softest touch among the stars. He just can't turn down any request, whether it be for a benefit or for a quick $10.
Lou Clayton his manager, gets tough with Jimmy occasionally, but Jimmy always denies having done anything. As Clayton puts it "How can you ston the guy? That's his pleasure in life, helping everybody. Who am I to deny him?"
The largest item in Carmen Miranda's monthly budget is her telephone bill. She likes to call home. And home, in case you don't know, is Rio in Brazil.

When she gets the connection, Carmen has to talk to her mama, her bruzzer-ee-law, her seester-ee-law, a seester, a niece, and a Brazilian boy-friend. The last talk with the folks lasted 45 minutes.
"Perik of Paulette"
Paulette Goddard has retitled her latest, "Unconquered." She calls it "The Perik of Paulette."
In the film she is: (1) tied to a prairie wagon and beaten; (2) sold on the auction block; (3) tortured at the stake by Indians; (4) swept over a waterfall; (5) made to scrub floors in a saloon while the wild wolves of the frontier make indelicate passes.
Charlie McCarthy finds the arrival of Edgar Bergen's new daughter, Candy, a definite threat to his favorite occupation—talking. "How am I going to get a word in edgewise," he demanded of Bergen, "with your mouth full of safety pins?"
In the script: In the film "Night and Day," Monty Woolley walks up to another bearded actor and says, "You and I, my dear fellow, could make such beautiful cough drops together."

3 TIMES IN 4 DAYS
DELPHOS, June 26—When a 9-year-old boy sold his bicycle to a friend three times in four days, the bicycle changed ownership three times in four days, had a new paint job, tire and horn but the thing was all upset when the parents of the original owner sought police help to regain the bike. Police Chief Link returned the bike but all financial tangles are not cleared up yet.

SWIM CLASSES OPEN
ADA, June 26—Swimming and diving classes are being held daily at the Ada municipal pool under the instruction of Tom Pierson, former ONU football star and Millard Murphy, coach at Ohio Northern.

Chester Bowles Defends Book On 'Author Meets Critic' Show

Chester Bowles, director of Economic Stabilization, and author of the book, "Tomorrow Without Fear," will defend his book and opinions expressed therein, as he appears on the new literary clinic, "The Author Meets the Critics" at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Frank Garvani, Washington correspondent for Collier's magazine will help to analyze Bowles' book, with another critic, to be introduced at the time of the program's airing.
Gracie Fields adds the comedy touch to Bob Crosby's airshow at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. Although a comic artist, Gracie has the ability to evoke tears as well as laughter. With Bob and the Bobcats she'll sing the popular ballads that have made her famous throughout England and America.

For his original motion picture music, and his introduction of screen numbers on the air, David Rose will be honored on the "Holiday for Music" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.
Ann Daggett, Hollywood executive editor of MovieLand magazine will present the conductor-composer with her publication's award for his "contributions to the musical art in motion pictures, and for his skill in broadening the scope of sound track film music on his CBS radio show."

"Mr. and Mrs. North," the comedy mystery series heard at 7 p. m. Wednesday over NBC, has been selected "Best mystery on the air for 1945" in a dual award with "Ellery Queen" by the Mystery Writers of America, an organization of leading mystery and detective fiction writers.
