

Roundy Says:—

Brooklyn keeps right on winning and winning. Will they stop them or not?

Jack Hebl and his mother open up there restaurant in Sun Prairie today. Jack says nothing but chicken this weekend. Sounds plenty sweet to me. Nogales, Arizona

Roundy:
Bob Jacobs is out here visiting me he has got plenty of money. Walt Bradley is out here we are looking for him. Some of the boys say we can find him because he is wearing Roundy's shirts "Cactus Pete"

I had a hoat ride on Lake Monona the other night Ralph Gregg took me around in the big job he has got. He told me not to mail him, "in-theright-business" card as he has had one for a number of years. George Hosegood he was right ahead of us with his big boat. They both have read the book "The Life of Boy, that is a beautiful ride I want more of them. It is just beautiful out there in the even-ing. I had a ride with Sloppy Joe the other day he rents his boat out. Nothing sloppy about that Cliff Gallagher he was around there he must be the head guy he had more braid on his hat than Admiral Nim-

Bill Platz was there he says don't get him mixed up with this bunch he is trying to buy a little old second hand rowboat.

Pat O'Leary was there, boy, he has got a boat. He says he thinks he will take it to Florida with him next winter. The Juke box was playing there "I'm In. The Dough." Pat says that's me.

Ray Nehls, publisher of the Monona Leader in Iowa, came to town the other day with some butter and did the boys ever give him a hand. He said he will have beel on the next visit,

I seen Dr. Atwood the other day we got talking football, gardens, and politics he won them all.

him. He said he could spot Dr. Louie Green a stroke on all the four and five holes. I said show me don't be talking about it.

The House of David got over a thousand dollars for playing here the other night. Where do they get that kind of dough? They are playing plenty of places for $300. Then they charged all the players in the Industrial League to get in.

If they had a thousand dollar ball team then I am manager of the Boston Red Sox.

In the game between the Bowmans and Bordens the other night the two shortstops Art Turnquist and Les French beautiful baseball. Their fielding and throwing was sensational. Boy, they put on a show and French was hitting the ball too.

Old Buck Ellis they struck him out two or three times in a row there but in the ninth Buck came up there and got that beautiful hit in the pinch that started the Bordens off to win the ball game.

Steele at third base played beautiful game for the Bordens he hit the life out of the ball and he came up with some good fielding plays too. This Schubeck is a darn good catcher is he ever helping the Bordens. In that eighth inning Mentzer pitched beautiful ball for the Borden team. Robba I guess played his last game for Bordens he had to go East I guess. He played one of the finest games he ever played here he cracked out three hits. He is a kood all-around ball player good fielder and a good hustler.

These two Huston boys for the Bowmans they are really hustlers.

Dr. Al Tormey was telling me Stanford Golfers the other day he spots St. John a stroke on every hole and heats Win College Title Win College Title

PRINCETON-(U.R)-Stanford's 'Cinderella team," which paid for its own way to the tournament, won the National Intercollegiate golf championship by five strokes over defending champion Ohio

Sparked by Frank McCann, who carded a par 72 despite a hard rain, the four-man Stanford team Grin Bay totalied 619 strokes. Leading the race for the individual championship to be decided today was Chuck Lind of the University of Denver, with a 36-hole total of 143. Charlie Coe of Oklanoma had 144.

Dodds May Return to Competition

FALLS CITY, Neb .-- (U.P.)-Gil Dodds, the flying parson of the nation's mile tracks a few years ago, may return to competition next winter, Lloyd Hahn, for-mer coach of the retired miler, said today. Hahn, America's premier miler in the late 20s, said Dodds, now teaching at Wheaton, Ill., College, had written him ask-Ill., College, had written him asking advice on a return to competition. Hahn replied in the aftirmative.

Dodds began his foot racing career as a student at Falls City high school in 1935. He competed in 10 races during his prep days and won them all, setting a state high school mile record of 4:28.1. Later he went to Boston and ran under the colors of the Boston AA. In 1944 he won the Chicago Relays mile in 4.08.4. He won the Sullivan Award Trophy in 1943. Dodds was 26 years old last Sunday.
