Mystery Western Films Billed for Lyric Monday

A mystery movie and a western film will highlight the Lyric theatre's marquee Tuesday when the "Julie Ross Mystery" is presented as the co-feature with "Song of the Prairie."

Both films provide plenty of entertainment of the kind that suits young and old alike.

"A Stolen Life" at the Ohio continues a successful engagement. The film stars Bette Davis, Dane Clark | and Glenn Ford. Joe Kirkwood has the leading role in "Joe Palooka, Champ," the new film at the Quilna derived from the favorite comic strip character, Joe Palooka. Sharing the bill is "Freddie Steps Out."

· Ray Milland has another role which helps keep him at the top of the slippery film ladder in "The Well-Groomed Bride" now at the Sigma. Sonny Tufts and Onvia De Havilland share acting honors. "Her Kind of Man" goes into its second day at the State with one successful day in Lima bebehind it. Janis Paige, Dane Clark and Zachary Scott share the

"Marlene Dietrich in "Kismet" arrived at the Majestics Sunday. "Back to Bataun" and "That's the Spirit" will open there Friday. Opening at the Allen Tuesday will be "Women in Prison" and "Lone Prairie" Now playing are "China's Little Devils" and "Siar Packer" with John Wayne

"Bowery Champs" "East Side Kids" and "Meet Miss Bobby Socks" are the current attractions at the Lima Drive-In "Casanova Brown" with Gary Cooper is the feature at the Gloria Drive-In.
