South, West Now

Lead in Crimes,

Magazine Says

NEW YORK-(U.P.)-Chances of getting murdered are 12 times greater in the South than in New England where the state of New Hampshire is the most law-abiding of the 48, the American magazine reports.

New York City and Chicago, once the mecca of gangsters, are models of respectability compared to some communities in the South and West, according to a survey made by the magazine. New York City, the report said has 10 crimes annually per 1,000 population and hicago and Illinois have 10 and Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Minnesota and North Dakota rank next to New Hampshire as the most law-abiding states, the survey said. But in California, Nevada, Arizona, Oregon and Wash-ingtc.; there are 20 crimes annually per 1,000 population. That is the highest rate in the nation,
