Film of Sub Crew's Heroism Shows World War H Scenes

Based on a true story of how one heroic sub crew saved America's high command from death on the waters during World War II, "Out of the Depths" opens Monday at the Lyric theatre. With actual water scenes from the last war, the picture stars Jim

Bannon, Ross Hunter and Ken Curtis. "One More Tomorrow," a sophisticated new comedy with a cast headed by five of Hollywood's brightest stars, now is showing at the State theatre. Clamorous Ann Sheridan, Dennis Morgan, and Alexis Smith have top roles, supported by Jane Wyman and comedian Jack Carson. "Strange Conquest" is an added attraction. Still beckoning crowds to the Sigma theatre are two good pictures, "Taugier" with Maria Montez, and the talked-about drama, "The Seventh Veil," with Ann Todd and James Mason. Theatre-goers are finding enjoyment in the story of the new "Smoky" at the Quilna theatre, which co-stars Fred Mac-Murray and Anne Baxter. Based on Will James' beloved classic, the plot brings to screenland a new Miss Baxter in the role of a hard-working woman rancher. MacMurray's role is that of a rugged danger-loving cowpuncher.

The fun-packed comedy "Without Reservations" is holding its own with local billings at the Ohio theatre. It's fun on a train with your favorites, Claudette Colbert, John Wayne and Don DeFore, a new Hollywood find.

Open only on Friday, Saturday and Sunday every week-end, the Majestic theatre promises topnotch entertainment in its coming attractions "Sudan" and "National Barn Dance" which begin Fri-

What happens when a truckdriver, with a lovely salesgirl friend, finds $5,000 in a garbage can is the story of "Dancing in Manhattan," with Fred Brady and Jeff Donnell, now showing at the Lima Drive-In theatre. The Glor-Strike Affects ia Drive-In theatre has "She Wouldn't Say Yes," with Rosalind Russell. -
