

Abbott and Costello Offer New Comedy in Sigma Film

Those two sterling comedians, Budd Abbott and Lou Costello, are said to introduce an entirely new brand of laughter in their latest picture, "Little Giant," which opens Saturday at the Sigma theatre.

Costello is seen as the country boy, and Abbott has a double role, impersonating two of the tycoons with whom the innocent rural youth comes in contact. Supporting this highly-amusing team of rib ticklers are Brenda Joyce, Jacqueline De Wit, and Mary Gordon. With it comes "Larceny in Her Heart," a Michael Shane series.

Highly dramatic, "Oh Human Bondage," now showing at the Ohio theatre, is a slight abbreviation of W. Somerset Maugham's greatest novel, but it's every bit as excellent. The plum role of "Mildred," Maugham's Cockney character, is portrayed well by new Eleanor Parker. Paul Henreid adds another laurel to screen performances in his characterization of Philip Carey, crippled artist.

An all-star cast of fun and frolic is Hollywood's production of "Zeigfeld Follies" at the State theatre. With Fred Astaire, Lucille Ball, Kathryn Grayson, the picture is combined with "Ding Dong Williams."

"The Dark Corner," with a new sensational Mark Stevens, is playing at the Ohio, with Lucille Ball in the feminine lead. "Rainbow Over Texas" has Roy Rogers and his equine friend, Trigger, "Crime Doctor's Warning" and "Gay Blades" are two good pictures for movie-mystery fans at the Lyric theatre. Chapter 13 of "Scarlet Horseman" is an added treat.

Beginning Friday at the majestic theatre are "See My Lawyer" and "Pistol-Packing Mama."

The Allen theatre now is showing "Ride, Ranger, Ride," with Gene Autry, and "Road to Alcatraz," with Robert Lowery. "Song of Island" and "Apache Kid" start Wednesday.

"Sing Me a Song of Texas" and "Eve Knew Her Apples" are showing for the last day at the Lima Drive-In theatre. "Now showing Spanish Main," the Gloria Drive-In theatre has "Guest Wife" Wednesday.

Slavs Contend Yanks in Wrong

LONDON, July 16 — (INS)—Yugoslavia charged today that American troops were "out of bounds" when they shot and killed two Yugoslav soldiers in Venezia Giulia.

The U. S. 88th Division said the Yugoslavs were shot while their patrols were maneuvering in the zone patrolled by Anglo-American forces.

The Belgrade radio claimed that the Americans were in the wrong zone and fired first upon the Yugoslavs.

'Case of Beautiful Brunette' Will Provide Radio Mystery

A soldier who sacrificed his life in France to save his buddy, a man who walks in to a telegraph office and without reason shoots the girl behind the counter, and a trip that "Nick Carter, Master Detective" makes to the Red Rose dance hall, form the background for "The Case of the Beautiful Brunette," to be heard at 7 p. m. over MBS.

Nick, played by Lon Clark, investigates the mysterious shooting of the telegraph operator and uncovers a strange story of a GI who returns to the States vowing to kill the girl whom he thinks was the cause of his friend's death. Thru an unusual twist of fate, he shoots the wrong girl, and escapes before Nick can prevent him from doing further damage.

An unscrupulous female frames her boy friend and furnishes court testimony which sends him up the-river for a long stretch, but when he successfully escapes from prison and vows to kill her, she appeals to MBS. ("The Falcon") Waring for aid in "Murder is a
