

Sweet, Swing Music Spotted On 'Music Hall' Thursday

Both sweet and swing music hold the limelight on the "Music Hall" program at 8 p. m. Thursday over NBC. Emcee Eddy Duchin will open playing a medley of "All the Things You Are" and "Sweet Sue." Edward Everett Horton, Vocalist Milena Miller and the King Cole Trio with Russ Case and his orchestra will be on hand to do their regular weekly stunts.

Maestro Gordon Jenkins loses a chord and then finds it, in the gay operetta tabbed "The Lost Chord," featured number on the "Dick Haymes Show" at 8 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

The Jenkins man, aided by such musical cohorts as the Four Hits and a Miss, the 30-piece orchestra and the Suitcase Six, ambles thru a rhythmic evening strewing a pocketful of notes along the way. Among the melodic tidbits to be heard are "Jericho," with the band and the chorus, "Blue Moon" and "All Thru the Day," plus a demonstration of Jenkins' own one-finger piano technique in "They Say its Wonderful."

A boxer and a blonde in a fixed fight that wouldn't stay fixed, and a $1,500 mortgage provide the musing background for "Me, I'm Sentimental," a delightful comedy

The concept of a mile was in-mix and was 1,000 five-foot produced into Britain by the Re-Places.

Heavy Rains Cut Scioto Corn Crop

PORTSMOUTH, July 18—(AP)—Floods and heavy rains that caused washing and wet spots on hill farms will cut Scioto-co's 1946 corn crop "at least 500,000 bushels" under last year's yield, George E. Wood, county agricultural agent, predicts.

Wood estimates the year's crop at 800,000 bushels, some 500,000 bushels under the 1945 yield of 1,352,000. The heaviest losses have occurred in the Scioto river bottoms near the Ohio river, he said, where corn lands were flooded three times earlier this year.
