

Merry Mayhem Keynotes Quilna Film Opening Friday

Merry mayhem and riotous romance are the keystones of the hilarious comedy farce, "It Shouldn't Happen To a Dog" which opens at the Quilna Friday.

Starring Carole Landis, Allyn Joslyn and an amazingly-talented Doberman Pinscher who answers to Rodney, the film tells the story of a newshound who knows all the angles, played by Allyn Joslyn, when he meets a lady cop, the result being 90 minutes of rib-tickling entertainment. Rodney is the dog it shouldn't happen to, and the remarkable canine is responsible for many of the film's heartiest laughs.

One of the craziest films to reach Lima will open at the Sigma theatre Saturday when the picture "So Goes My Love" is set to the projector and ready to roll. The stars of the screwy drama are Don Ameche and Myrna Loy and both turn in a performance worthy of fun seekers. Sharing the bill due to open is "Falcon's Alibi" with Tom Conway.

Olivia DeHavilland and John Lund turn in exceptionally fine performances in their current starring "To Each His Own" at the Ohio theatre. The film is the story of a love which became a trap later on, springing open to let go the bonds. John Lund is being introduced to the public in this film and promises to be in the public's eye again.

The State's film, "Janie Gets Married" will recall to many who see it, the many problems of newlyweds, and will bring to life many which may have, during the past few years, escaped the mind of you who have been guilty of them. Joan Leslie and Robert Hutton have the leading roles in the film which is co-featured with "Hawaii Calls".

John Wayne and Vera Hruba Ralston have the starring roles in the film, "Dakota" now showing at the Lyric theatre with "The Cheaters." Opening Saturday midnight will be "I Love a Band-leader" and "Border Bandits."

"Young Blood" and "West of Texas" are the films now showing at the Allen theatre where "City of Silent Men" is scheduled to open Sunday with "Bar 20 Rides Again."

"Border Patrol" and "Hoosier Holiday" will open at the Lima Drive-In theatre Sunday while "Tom Young To Know" with Joan Leslie and Robert Hutton is due at the Gloria Drive-In theatre the same day.

Bridge Worker Believes Jinx Following Him

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., July 26.—(UP)—R. G. Walker, 34, has every reason to believe that his job repairing the Baltimore and Ohio bridge across the Kanawha river is jinxed.

He went to work with the John F. Casey Co. after it undertook the project in December, 1945. The company boasted a clean safety record until Walker had his hand broken in an accident.

There were no more mishaps until yesterday. Walker fell from the scaffolding and suffered a broken back.

His condition is serious, a Gallipolis, O., hospital reported.

Huge Telescope Nears Perfection, Report

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., July 26.—(INS)—Dr. Russell W. Porter of the California Institute of Technology said today that the 200-inch telescope on Mount Palomar, Calif., will be finished next year and will detect objects more than 500 million light years away.

A light year is six million-million miles, or the distance that light will travel in one year.

He said the mirror was now 20-millionths of an inch from perfection.

Writer Sends Greetings on Shaw Birthday

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., July 26.—(UP)—Dr. Archibald Henderson, of the University of North Carolina and official biographer of George Bernard Shaw, today extended greetings to the Irish wit on his 90th birthday.

"Once more I salute you as a great figure of our times," Dr. Henderson said. "You belong in the company of the immortals, because of the irrepressible gaiety of your spirit, the infinite zest of life which marks the genius, the crystalline clarity of your style and the humanitarian passion for race improvement and world betterment."

"I personally acknowledge the debt I owe you for the special delights afforded me by your airy insolence, your memorable epigrams, and the breath-taking interest of your dramatization of social, political and economic issues."
