AGATHA FOWLKES

JOHN E. DIETRICH

AT THE UNION: Mrs. John Guy Fowlkes -- who, as Agatha Karlen, was leading woman with the Al Jackson players before her marriage--will play the leading role in Wisconsin Players' production of "The Little Foxes" at the Wisconsin Union theater this week.

Mrs. Fowlkes will have the part which Tallulah Bankhead created on Broadway and played here in 1940 and which Bette Davis recreated on the screen.

John E. Dietrich, whose "Of Thee I Sing" was one of last season's successes, is directing the show. The cast will include besides Mrs. Fowlkes, Warren Rosenheim, Milton Kaplan, Paul Gauger, Marjorie Ann Purcell, Edgar Wood, George Ross, Mina Margaret Wheeler, Kellam Prickett, and Rosalee Berman.

No seats are available for the performances at 8 p. m. Wednesday through Saturday; all were sold by season subscription.

TITLE: "The play's title comes from the same biblical passage as that of "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes." "Takes us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines; for our vines have tender grapes."

THE DANCE: Orchestral University of Wisconsin dance group will present a recital at 8 p. m. Monday, Aug. 12, in the Wisconsin Union theater. A summer performance by Orchestral is a rarity; this one resulted from numerous requests for a repetition of its April concert.

The group will repeat "Figures in a Crowd" and "Accumulated Virtue," and will present a new dance based on three short plays by Thornton Wilder. Members are doing the choreography and Shirley Genther is writing the music.

Accompanists will be Lee Hoiby and Christine Charnstrom, duopians.

Tickets will go on sale Monday at the theater boxoffice.

ORGAN MUSIC: Music by contemporary composers will be presented by Ruth Finger Andrews in her organ recital at 10:30 a. m. today in Luther Memorial church. The works will be "Prayer," Ravanello; meditation on "Jesus Christ, My Sure Defense," Sowerby, and "Cantabile," Jongen.

ON THE AIR: High school pupils who performed with the All-State High School band, orchestra, and chorus here will have a chance to hear themselves today. WHA, in its "Encore" program, will rebroadcast a 90-minute concert by the three organizations at 2 p. m.

SUMMER THEATER NEWS: The director and several members of the Portland Players at Delavan are members of Wisconsin Players.

Raymond Erandt, former Wisconsin Players president, is director. Harriet Munzer, president-elect; Carole Brantley, Jim Brandon, Ray Carlson, and Andy Suravits are members of the campus organization.

Miss Suravits is playing the lead in this week's production of "The Silver Cord." Miss Munzer and Brantley had leads in earlier shows.

The Delavan group performs Sunday, and Monday nights. Peter Turgeon, who created the part of "Pat Sweet" in Truax Field's radio show during the war and who appeared in leading roles in field and campus productions, is playing important parts this summer with the Peterborough Players at Peterborough, N. H.

After his discharge from the army air force, Turgeon worked in New York in radio, to which he will return in the fall.

Members of the Port Players, Oconomowoc, had a tough time finding a bagpipe for use in "The Hasty Heart," which ends its run tonight. Pres. John Campbell, of the St. Andrew's society finally came through with one after a thorough search of Milwaukee.

John Stewart, who played the nurse on Broadway, is playing it at Oconomowoc. Otis Bryant, University of Wisconsin student, also has a role.

WISCONSIN ANGLES: Done, Monroe and Moon Maids (Victor).

"Give Me Five Minutes More" and "Texas Tex." Tex Bencke and Miller orchestra; Tex sings on former; latter is all-instrumental (Victor).

Radio Forum Discusses India

Two students from India and an American student who was formerly stationed in India will participate in the University of Wisconsin radio forum discussion, "What Can Freedom Do For India?" in the Wisconsin Union play circle Monday from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m.

The Indian members of the panel are Krishnaswami K. Iya, Bangalore, India, graduate student in agriculture, and Aziz Pabany, graduate student in chemical engineering. Robert L. Gordon, graduate in the history of the British empire, who was stationed in India while in the armed forces, will be the third speaker. Robert Lampan will again be moderator.

Admission tickets may be obtained at the Union boxoffice beginning Saturday and continuing through Monday. They are free.

City Girl Aids Red Cross in A-Bomb Area

By JAMES R. YOUNG (Special to the State Journal)

KWAJALEIN -- Only civilian women in the atomic test area at Bikini and Kwajalein are girl Red Cross workers who agreed to stay with the joint army-navy force project until they are transferred home or to other Pacific bases.

The Red Cross "up-and-atom" girls, as they are nicknamed by 30,000 personnel with the atomic fleet and base headquarters, have posed what seems to be enough coffee to fill Bikini lagoon. Doughnuts have been served in quantities that would build a small fort around the former Jap-held Kwajalein coral isles.

The 32 Red Cross workers include Marcia D. Walton, 2122 Vilas ave., Madison, Wis. Miss Walton graduated from the University of Wisconsin, before coming overseas as a canteen worker.

The Red Cross operates a 24-hour canteen schedule at the navy air terminal, serving 32,000 cups of coffee a week. The atom army service end of Kwajalein Island takes 16,000 cups of coffee and 23,000 doughnuts every week. The enlisted men's club takes another batch of doughnuts from the baker factory which turns out 12,000 each day.

All the Red Cross staff have had at least eight months overseas experience in Hawaii, the Marshall isles, where the atomic tests are conducted, and the Marianas, also former Jap possessions. Many have had 18 months in the Pacific, although the average tour of duty here is four months.

"Hell's Angels" are the living quarters for the many nurses and the Red Cross women. Each girl has a single room, comfortably furnished, but the water is cold, brackish, and frequently scarce. They do their laundry with a propeller windmill and rubber plunger, prevailing trade winds generating the power for the Kwajalein wash tubs.

REPAIRS FOR ST. PAUL'S LONDON--(U-P)--Bomb damage to St. Paul's cathedral cannot be repaired for a number of years, it has been announced.

Work includes replacement of stained glass windows, heating and lighting of the building, organ repairs, and renewal of the choir and its ornaments.

The war damage commission will meet part of the estimated expense of over $400,000. Donations spread over a period of years will furnish the remainder of the funds.
