'Rebecca' Scheduled To Open At Sigma Theatre Wednesday

Voted by critics everywhere one of the most distinguished film productions of the season, "Rebecca" is playing a popularly-demanded return engagement at the Sigma theatre beginning Wednesday.

Probably few names have become as widely known or as closely identified with a particular fictional character as the one supplying the title of this motion picture. But the absorbing anomaly about the situation is that Rebecca, who gives her name to the story, never appears in it and is dead before the curtain rises on the initial

The Ohio film, "To Each His Own," has a plot thick with stirring suspense and romance. With Olivia Dellavilland and John Lund in the leading roles, the film is outstanding because of its character portrayal and dialogue. Perhaps no other song has brought so much pleasure to the Irish than the one known as "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Diopping the 'when' we have the name of the film surrently showing at the Quilna theatre with Dick Haymes and June Haver. The film tells the story of Ernest Bail, the man who composed the song, his life, including his troubles and tribulations.

Lum and Abner are the main attraction at the State theatre where they now are to be seen in the comedy film, "Partners In Time." Sharing the bill at the theatre is "Badman's Territory."

Gary Cooper makes a return appearance in Lima in the film 'Casanova Brown" now playing at the Lyric theatre Teresa Wright has the co-starring role in the film which is billed with "Laura." William Boyd as Hopalong Cassidy has the leading part in "Bar 20 Rides Again" now showing at the Allen theatre. "City of Silent Men" with June Lang is the co-feature. Bill Boyd makes another appearance at the Lima Drive-In theatre in "Border Patrol" with "Hoosier Holiday" with Dale Evans as the bill sharer. "Too Young To Know" will how out at the Gloria Drive-In theatre Tuesday as "Conflict" with Humphrey Bogart and Alexis Smith comes in to replace it.
