

Special Broadcast To Mark Army Air Forces Day Thursday

Army Air Forces Day on Thursday will be saluted by MBS in a special half-hour broadcast at 8:30 p. m., featuring a lineup of celebrities, headed by Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, commanding general of the United States Army Air Forces.

Jimmy Doolittle, former lieutenant general of the Air Forces and now president of the Air Forces-Association, Ronald Reagan, who will act as master of ceremonies, and Jimmy Stewart head the list of stars and celebrities who will appear on this commemorative program, which will originate in Hollywood, Washington and Boston.

Expert instrument pilots usually are able to make blind landings with the Army Air Corps radio system, after two or three hours of practice.

Missionaries Visit Friends

(Special To The Lima News)
KENTON, Aug. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hobbs who long have been missionaries in Korea and who were interned two and one-half years in China as prisoners of the Japanese are visiting relatives and friends here. It is their first visit here in nine years.

Mrs. Hobbs, the former Edna Van Fleet of Kenton, went to Korea in 1918 as a missionary of the Methodist church. It was there that she met and married Hobbs. They were taken prisoner on March 4, 1943 and interned at Yangchow, a British camp. Seven months later they were transferred to an American camp, Chai-pai, where they spent the remaining months of imprisonment.

Cleveland Set For Air Armada

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1.—(INS)—An aerial armada of 69 army planes was to fly over Cleveland today in celebration of air force day.

The parade, led by nine B-29 super-fortresses, will include P-51 shooting stars, P-51 Mustangs, B-26 marauders, C-46 transports and B-25 medium bombers.

The flight will pass over several mid-western cities during the day.
