Anniversary of Sound Films Marked in Lima Theatres

This is it! Tuesday's the day which marks the 20th anniversary of sound motion pictures. On Aug. 6, 1926, Warner Brothers released the first film which could speak, revolutionizing the moving picture industry and cadsing within itself the will to explore the advantages of talking films. Now on tap at the local theatres are examples of the outstanding achievement made in the moving picture world. At the Sigma is the film "Young Widow" which has caused so much exclamation by fans. Jane Russell, tabbed as the world's most exciting brumette," is starred in the film with Louis Hayward. A story which may be the same as many others of today is to be found to unfold in the picture. "Night and Day" at the Ohio theatre is the anniversary film and it brings to film fans some of Cole Porter's most delightful music and excerpts of his life. In technicolor, the film brings something of an "eyeful" to long-waiting movie-goers in the line of a musical.

At the Quilna is "Centennial Summer" with the music of Jerome Kern. Nearly every number in the film has been heard on the "hit parade"-truly a feather in the cap of the composer. Jeanne Crain, Cornel Wilde, Linda Darnell and William Eythe have the etarring roles in the film.

In one of her best roles to date, Bette Davis again captures the complete interest of her audience in "A Stolen Life" in which she stars with Dane Clark and Glenn Ford. The film is a mystery-romance which puts Bette in the film spotlight once again. Sharing the billing is "Hold That Woman," at the State.

"Hitch Hike to Happiness" and "Wagon Wheel Westward" are scheduled to open at the Lyric theatre Thursday. Now showing is "Then There Were None" and "Six Gun Gospel." "They Made Me A Criminal" and "Corpus Christi Bandits" will open at the Allen theatre Wednesday while "Oklahoma Kid" and "Song of the Saddle" are the current billings at the theatre. "Scarlet Clue" and "Rosie the Riveter" will make their appearances at the Lima Drive-In theatre as "The Corn Is Green," with Bette Davis and John Dall, opens at the Gloria Drive-In. "Christmas In Connecticut" is the current attraction at the latter theatre. Newport Arch in Lincoln and Coleman.
