

Rough and Tumble Films Due At Lyric Theatre Tuesday

If you're the type who prefers your movies with that certain rough and tumble air about them, then the Lyric theatre has just the billing you'll want to see.

The double feature of "Let's Get Tough" and "Trail of Vengeance" provides some extraordinary action and excitement.

For scenic beauty which surpasses anything films have been privileged to see recorded on film, the Lyric is offering Ernest Haycox's story "Canyon Passage." The film has Dana Andrews, Brian Donlevy and Susan Hayward as its stars and brings to life an exciting story of the Oregon country.

Looking At HOLLYWOOD

with ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 12.—(NEA)—For a minute, we thought the casting directors had gone crazy. Big, blond Sonny Tufts, the bobbysoxer's delight, was playing a rough, tough correspondent who pushes around his gray-haired mother, doublecrosses his sister-in-law, and betrays Ann Blyth.

Dan Duryea, who has pushed the ladies around in several films, winning recognition as Hollywood's No. 1 cinematic heel, was being ray, chivalrous, tender and romantic.

It just couldn't happen in Hollywood, where everybody gets typed and goes on playing the same kind of role until he is done at the box-office.

Maybe, we figured, someone has gotten the sheets mixed, or Mr. Universal Studio has suddenly gone loony, or some of those radioactive thingamajigs had slipped into town unnoticed and had turned Tufts and Duryea themselves into mental cases.

A Change of Pace

Then we discovered it was all prearranged. It was a neat little plan to give Sonny and Dan a change of pace and to silence their growlings, of late, that they were in a typing rut.

Sonny becomes the hero with the heart of a heel in the Mark Hellinger movie "Swell Guy."

Kansas Girl Hunts 'D. T.' On Program at Playshop

Looking for Mr. "T. D."—with an assist from "Queen for a Day." That's the saga of 23-year-old Pauline Saviano, Kansas girl vocalist, who hopes to hear her name read off when Tommy Dorsey announces the winner of his nationwide hunt for a new girl vocalist over "Tommy Dorsey's Playshop" at 9 p. m. Monday over MBS.

Pauline, convinced that Tommy need look no further, journeyed to Hollywood to personally deliver a recording of her voice to him. She finally received promise of an introduction to the trombone maestro when she visited Mutual's "Queen for a Day" program.

A blood-soaked chiller, "Preview for Murder" starring Lawson Zerbe, is the "Inner Sanctum" mystery at 7 p. m. Monday over CBS. Your host, Paul McGrath, with diabolical taunts, will lead brave listeners thru the ominously creaking door, to the grisly drama beyond.

What Gregory Hood expects to be a very dull convention in San Francisco turns out to be an interesting gathering of a secret society, in the latest entry in "The Case Book of Gregory Hood," to be heard at 7:30 p. m. Monday over MBS.

Gregory is literally pulled to the meeting by his friend, Sandy, but his interest is quickly revived when he uncovers three murders against a background of ancient mystic rituals.

A clever gang of counterfeiters who have been flooding the United States and Canada with thousands of worthless bills, find themselves the object of an intensive search during "Voyage of Death" on the "Adventures of Bulldog Drummond" at 7 p. m. Monday over MBS.

Ohio Army Officer Drowns in Lake

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Lt. John K. Carroll, 23, of Plainville, Ohio, drowned while swimming in nearby Newman lake yesterday.

Carroll, a veteran of 15 months overseas service in the China-Burma-India theatre as a B-24 pilot, was stationed at Fort George Wright near Spokane.

WALKER KILLED

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 12.—(INS)—Robert Ison, 24, of Portsmouth, was killed when struck by a Norfolk and Western freight train yesterday. Ison was crossing the track on his way to his home nearby.
