

'Night and Day' Held Over -- Now in Second Week in Lima

Going into its second week in Lima, perhaps one of the longest held over a film ever has had, is "Night and Day" at the Sigma theatre, the musical extravaganza which recently helped Warner Brothers celebrate its 20th anniversary of sound motion pictures.

The film is in its third week at the New York Hollywood theatre which should be proof enough to those not having seen it, that it's worth their time. All of Cole Porter's hit songs which made him famous are to be found plus plenty of action and romance. Cary Grant and Alexis Smith have the leading roles, with such other favorites as Monty Woolley, Jane Wyman, Mary Martin and lots of others.

Loaded with excitement and entertainment is the film "Canyon Passage" now showing at the Ohio and starring Dana Andrews, Brian Donlevy and Susan Hayward also have featured roles in this film which includes the scenic landscape of Oregon's Rogue river country.

Roddy McDowall and Preston Foster with Rita Johnson return to the Quilna for the film, "Thunderhead, Son of Flicka" the story which has enthralled audiences since its premiere. Sharing the billing is "Kid Millions."

Opening at the State Thursday will be "The Blue Dahlia" with Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake sharing top honors. Back together for the first time since they made their respective debuts together in "This Gun for Hire," the duo brings some startling mystery and suspense to the screen. Sharing the bill will be "Regular Fellows."

Dorothy McGuire has the leading role of the mute in the film "The Spiral Staircase" scheduled for opening at the Lyric Thursday. The co-feature will be "Roughriders of Cheyenne" due Thursday.

"The Wolf Call" and "Outlaws of the Cherokee Trail" are the co-features due at the Allen Thursday. Currently showing are "Bells of Rosarita" with Roy Rogers and "The Great Mike" with Stuart Erwin.

"Junior Prom" and "Flame of the West" will open at the Lima Drive-In Wednesday while "Princess O'Rourke" will open at the Gloria Drive-In.

American Freighter Helpless off Japan

TOKYO, Aug. 13.—(INS)—The Liberty Ship Joseph Aspdin was wallowing in heavy seas 200 miles off Sasebo, Japan, today as the American Destroyer Goodrich stood by attempting rescue operations.

The Aspdin has been helpless since last Saturday due to a damaged rudder. Radio reports from the ship said the heavy seas were hampering the rescue efforts of the Goodrich and a Japanese tug which was attempting to take the ship in tow.
