

'The Blue Dahlia' Opens at State Theatre Thursday

Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake return to the screen of the State theatre Thursday in the film, "The Blue Dahlia" the film filled with mystery and suspense.

It tells the story of the return of a war veteran who finds his wife hasn't been sincere as he had thought she would. Naturally turning to someone else, after finding his wife murdered and the guilt nearly pinned on him, Veronica Lake seems to be the answer to his many problems.

Scenery and background are in the Ohio film in plentiful amounts. The movie, "Canyon Passage" with Dana Andrews, Susan Hayward and Brian Donlevy, brings some of the most suspenseful movie fare ever to be viewed. It brings the west to the front doorstep in all its splendor and beauty.

The famous "Kid Millions" film which set fire to the motion picture screen not so many seasons back with song and dance, is back again with its original stars. Currently opening for a few days at the Quilna, the film stars Eddie Cantor, George Murphy, Ann Sothern, Ethel Merman and others.

Well on its way into the second week of playing is the film "Night and Day" now at the Sigma. Starring Cary Grant and Alexis Smith, the film tells the story of Cole Porter and of his many songs which have become popular thru the years. Sharing top honors are Jane Wyman, Monty Woolley, Mary Martin and a host of supporting players.

"Let's Get Tough" now showing at the Lyric brings the East Side Kids back to the screen in another rollicking film. Leo Gorcey, who plays the leader of the gang of roughnecks out to keep law and order, finds things not going so good so he sets out to do something about it.

"The Wolf Call" and "Outlaws of the Cherokee Trail" are due at the Allen Wednesday. Both films are scheduled to provide some fine entertainment.

"Raffles" and "Flame of the West" are the pictures opening at the Lima Drive In Wednesday while "Princess O'Rourke" will make a return appearance at the Gloria Drive-In. The latter has Olivia DeHavilland as its star.

'Holiday for Music' To Offer Rose Original on Wednesday

A timely-titled David Rose original musical number, "4:20 A. M." will be featured by the young composer-conductor on "Holiday for Music" at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. At the end of an all-night session, writing a tune for his radio show, Rose looked at his watch. A dial read, 4:20 a. m., and that is the name he gave the new-born melody.

Glamorous screen star Lana Turner will play the title role in the spicy comedy, "Vivacious Lady," on the "Academy Award" program at 9 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. Starring in the radio version of the witty motion picture story, Miss Turner will be the ornamental night club singer who secretly marries a professor—son of a college president—and goes back to school.

Predictions made in 1944 by economist-writer Leo Cherne in his book, "The Rest of Your Life," will be analyzed on "Author Meets Critics" over MBS at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday. Cherne will compare his predictions, made before the end of the war, with recent post-war developments and defend his book against the panel of critics including the noted radio commentator and world traveler, J. Raymond Walsh.

"Chiquita Banana" the tropical tune, takes a mythical journey to foreign lands as Xavier Cugat and his orchestra interpret musically how the tune would be played in Ireland, Hawaii, Italy and Mexico on their regular appearance on the MBS "Spotlight Bands" at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Victory Day will be observed at 9 p. m. Wednesday with a special half-hour broadcast of addresses by the wartime commanders of our Army, Navy and Air Forces, "Victory Leaders Report."

Gen. H. H. Arnold, commander of the Army Air Forces, Fleet Adm. Ernest J. King, Fleet Adm. William D. Leahy, chief of staff to the commander-in-chief, and Gen. George C. Marshall will bring to America the significance of the occasion as the program commemorates President Truman's official proclamation of Victory Day.

YOUTH BURNED
XENIA, Aug. 14 — (AP) — Harold Liming, 16, of Bowersville, was treated at City hospital today for serious burns suffered when gasoline squirted into his pocket was ignited with a cigaret lighter by another boy.

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 14 — (NEA) — Freddie Bartholomew's Aunt Cissie — Milliecent Bartholomew — is absent-minded about little things. She tells this story on herself.

Once, when Freddie was small, a lady with a little girl came to call on the Bartholomews. The child was so shy that she hid behind a chair.

Aunt Cissie fixed cocktails for the adults, ginger ale for the children. The children gulped theirs down.

Aunt Cissie sat down, finally, and sipped her "cocktail." It was ginger ale.

She looked at Freddie. He seemed normal. But the little girl came out from behind the chair, dancing and singing.

Said the visiting mother: "Cissie, what a way you have with children! She's no longer shy!"

After attending a big party given by Rosette Crouse, Armand Deutsch thanked his celebrated host when he saw him the following day.

In his usual manner, Crouse quipped: "Oh, that's nothing."
