

Music with Chuckle Offered By Dick Haymes Thursday

Music with a chuckle and an Indian motif comes up on CBS' "Dick Haymes Show," when maestro Gordon Jenkins and the cast of 63 offer "Red Wing" as the capsule operetta, at 8 p. m. Thursday. Along with the production number the program offers the Four Hits and a Miss and the Suitcase Six in a variety of tunes.

The current housing shortage and plans to provide adequate housing facilities for returned veterans will be discussed by Wilson Wyatt, National Housing administrator, when he is questioned by John Small, civilian producer and administrator, on a special MBS panel discussion at 10:30 p. m. Thursday.

A medley of 10 numbers in honor of the nation's song pluggers is Meredith Wilson's orchestral highlight on a broadcast at 7:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Finnegan, portrayed by Stuart Erwin, is all for cutting down his family tree. As manager of the Welcome Arms apartments on the "Phone Again Finnegan" program at 9:30 p. m. Thursday over CBS, Finnegan has enough worries without getting a visit from cousin Firby.

Hit tunes of today and yesterday will be featured on the Music Hall when the show takes to the air at 8 p. m. Thursday over NBC. Eddy Duchin, who will open the musical half-hour, Edward Everett Horton, Milena Miller, the King Cole Trio, and Russ Case and his orchestra are scheduled to fill featured spots.

Henry Daniell will be heard as a cynic who makes a macabre wager when he stars in "Last Letter of Dr. Johnson," on "Suspense," at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS. He bets that he can buy the lives of five people, and in trying to carry out the terms of his gamble, he encounters startling developments. Stan Kenton brings his flying

Chandler Seeks Radio Permit

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15—(UP)—Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler today applied for federal authority to enter the radio broadcasting business.

The former senator joined four other Kentuckians in asking the Federal Communications Commission for authority to build a 1,000-watt station in Versailles, Ky.

Chandler was listed as president of the organization, called the Blue Grass Broadcasting Co. He has subscribed for $40,000 worth of stock, the application said. Other officers are Roy G. Wil-iams, insurance man and member of the Woodford-co fiscal court, vice president, and Colin P. Rouse, attorney and election commissioner, secretary-treasurer, both of Versailles.

The applicants estimated that it would cost $5,800 monthly to run the station and that it would produce $7,568 a month in revenues.
