TOUR BOARDING HOUSE WILL MAJOR HOOPLE O'Keefe Headlines Comedy In Sigma's New Fun Film

When a killer abducts a pretty girl going to her wedding, the complications promise to be funny as well as exciting. "Her Adventurous Night" new feature film scheduled to open at the Sigma theatre, lives up to these potentialities in every respect.

Starring Dennis O'Keefe and Helen Walker, this picture emerges as a breezy, sparkling comedy entertainment. In a novel but effective transposition of events, the story opens with O'Keefe and Miss Walker as a sedate married couple, blessed with an over-imaginative son, played by Scotty Beckett. From there on in the film becomes more amusing and astonishing.

The Ohio's film, "Easy to Wed," with Van Johnson and Esther Williams in the title roles brings another turn in the comedy field. How to make matrimony one of the hundreds of parts of the comedy which takes place in this film something you'll not want, to miss. Lucille Ball and Keenan Wynn have supporting roles in the picture.

"Anna and the King of Siam" now showing at the Quilna is a film well worth anyone's time. It tells of an English widow summoned by the King of Siam to educate his wives and children. Excitement runs wild as the barbarism of that era is brought to life in this thrilling film.

Opening at the State Thursday will be "Little Giant" with Bud Abbott and Lou Costello. The current feature at the show house "Two Sisters from Boston," the fun-packed film which stars June Allyson, Kathryn Grayson, Jimmy Durante, Peter Lawford and Lauritz Melchior.

Alice Faye returns to the screen once more in "Fallen Angel" with Dana Andrews and Linda Darnell now showing at the Lyric. Sharing the billing is "Outlaw of the Rockies.

"Fog Island" with Lionel Atwill and "Prairie Gun Smoke" with Wild Bill Elliott will bow out at the Allen when "Klondike Fury" and "Death Valley Outlaw" come in for a few days showing.

"A Boy, a Girl, and a Dog" and "That's My Baby" will open at the Lima Drive-In Wednesday while at the same time "Woman in the Window! with Joan Bennett and Edward G. Robinson comes to the Gloria Drive-In.

In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 20—(NEA) —"Hello. December 14th,"

Carroll Righter said. Old December 14th, that's us, To this fellow Righter, people are just dates. Even Marene Dietrich.

He told December 27th-er, Miss Dietrich, that is-to stay home on August 26.

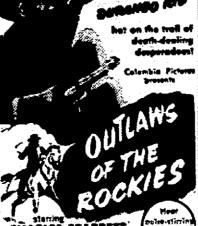

"But," protested the lady, "I cannot tell my producer that I am not coming to work today because my astrologer doesn't want me

"You'll save him money if you do," Righter said. "Oh . . . pooh!" laughed the silly

So she went to work anyway And what happened? She broke her ankle and wound up in the hospital, that's what.

"See?" Righter said. Creepy column today, isn't it? Now. Righter does not profess to tell fortunes. He merely calculates the chances according to astrology, which to him is a science.
