'Lover Come Back' To Open A As Sigma Billing Wednesday

George Brent and Lucille Ball take over the playing reins at the Sigma theatre Wednesday in "Lover Come Back."

The story conceins a roving-eyed (insofar as women are concerned) war correspondent, his wife, who is known as America's best-dressed woman; and the other woman, who is as ready to sacrifice her own love as she is hungry for it. Opening sequences deal with the return from Europe of the correspondent; and his photographer aide, a famous camerawoman. Soon the wife discovers the woman to be a rival and the husband an efficient philanderer as well as a famous correspondent.

Again being called to the attention of movie-goers is the film at the Ohio, "The Postman Always Rings Twice" with Lana Turner and John Garfield. The picture tells an almost incredible story of intrigue and suspense that will not soon be forgotten by those who see it. The west comes into view in the film at the Quilna theatre entitled "In Old Sacramento" with William Elliott and Constance Moore in the leading roles. William Elliott, previously featured in rip-roaring westerns, gets a fling at a romantic one for a change and turns in a mighty nice performance. Sharing the billing is "Night Train From Memphis."

Ray Milland and Sonny Tufts along with Olivia DeHavilland lead a collective merry race to see who'll get a magnum of champagne in the film "Well Groomed Bride" now showing at the State theatre. How it all comes about and how it ends provides good film fare for the whole family.

"Flying Serpent" and "Blondie's Lucky Day" with Aithur Lake and Penny Singleton are the films now showing at the Lyric, while scheduled for opening Thursday is "Along the Navajo Trail." "Riot Squad" and "Terro. of the Plains" are on the schedule for opening at the Allen theatre Wednesday. Now showing are "Three on the Trail" with William Boyd as Hopalong Cassidy, and "Song of Old Wyoming."

"Crime By Night" and "Wanderer of the Wasteland" are the current features at the Lima Drive-In theatre while "Adventures of Marco Polo" is showing at the Gloria Drive-In. Opening Wednesday will be "Falcon In Frisco" and "Sing Your Way "Hitch Hike to Happiness" at the Home" at the Lima Drive-In and Gloria Drive-In.
