Mystery, Comedy, History-F All in Films Here Saturday E

Mystery, comedy, history and many other things figure into the list of films billed for showing at the local theatres Saturday.

For the sleuths who once again want to test their abilities in the art of detecting, the film at the Ohio will provide plenty of chances to get tied up on a clue. The film is "The Big Sleep" with those two people for whom you've been waiting to see, Humphrey Bogart and Lauren

George Montgomery and Ann Rutherford return to the Quilna in the all-time musical hit which has the band of the late Glenn Miller featured in it, "Orchestra Wives." Sharing the billing is "China Girl" with Gene Tierney.

Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Cummings being fun in its finest form to the Sigma in "The Bride Wore Boots," one of the most unusual comedies to hit Lima screens in a long time. Sharing the billing is "Wild Beauty."

Opening at the State Sunday will be the laugh film "Without Reservations" with Claudette Colbert, John Wayne and Don Defore. These three stars manage to keep things fairly active thruout the film presenting a picture worthy of the entire family's seeing.

"Eve Knew Her Apples" and "Boss of Rawhide" are the pictures due for opening an engagement at the Lyric Saturday midnight. Currently showing is "Along the Navajo Trail" with Roy Rogers and "The Great Flam-

"Phantom of 42nd Street" and "Arizona Bound" are scheduled for opening at the Allen Sunday. Now showing are "Land of the Open Range" with James Newell and "Crashing Thru."
