

Noland and Price Billed In CBS Mystery Thursday

Two film stars, instead of the usual one, will share top billing on "Suspense," radio's theatre of thrills, when it airs an eerie tale of a big-game hunt with a human life at stake, in "Hunting Trip," at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

Lloyd Nolan and Vincent Price are the stars, in a drama about two men, one a successful, city-softened business man, the other a hardened sportsman, who go hunting together. The fact that both men courted the same girl in earlier years leads to a suspense-packed safari, with the hunters also the hunted.

Eddy Duchin, piano virtuoso and emcee of the Music Hall, will play a medley of "After You're Gone" and "Body and Soul," over NBC at 8 p. m.

The time period for the inaugural broadcast of "Crime, Causes and Prevention," originally scheduled for 9 p. m. has been changed to 9:15 p. m. over MBS.

Henry Aldrich and his dad use matchsticks to illustrate an algebra problem and wind up with a lumber pile, during "The Aldrich Family" comedy on NBC at 7 p. m.

The last request of a dying man is carried out and his ashes are scattered from a plane flying above New York City. As the ashes are wafted earthward, a vagrant wind blows them into the eyes of three different people with weird and amazing results in "Here's Dust in Your Eye," on "The Carrington Playhouse," over MBS at 7 p. m.

Pickpockets, thieves and safe crackers are only little boys when a gootie, according to the distant side of the Burns household, when she attempts to tackle another national problem on the Thursday "Coffee Time" broadcast at 7:30 p. m. over NBC.

There's a cow walking on his hind legs on "THE ALDRICH FAMILY" TONIGHT on a NEW STATION WLOK
