Poignant Story of Soldier Opens at Lyric on Monday

One of the most poignant stories to come to the screens of theatres in Lima is the picture "Sunday Dinner for a Soldier" at the Lyric, Produced during the war, the film tells the engaging story of a boy and girl, the latter a volunteer to cook dinner for a serviceman. As it turns out the girl is none too wealthy and must support a smaller sister, brother and a father who takes delight in nothing, but becoming intoxicated. But the laughs encountered thruout are something which long will be remembered by fans who witness the

The unusual story of a dog is the theme for the film "Courage of Lassie" now showing at the Ohio. Elizabeth Taylor, Frank Morgan and Tom Drake have the leading roles in the film while the dog, Lassie, has one of the largest roles-ever to be awarded Opening at the Quilna Tuesday. will be a return showing of the film "Topper" with Cary Grant. The film which set theatre audiences to laughing some seasons back, makes a return bow with as much applause from fans set to view it as it did previously. Sharing the billing will be "Come and Get It."

The story of the Office Strategic services will be found in the Sigma's "OSS" now showing and starring Alan Ladd, Geraldine Fitzgerald and Patric Knowles. The film was made behind locked and heavily-guarded doors for any information which may have escaped might have greatly endangered the life of the one informed, during those days in the war when spies were seeking any bits of information they might lay hands on. Sharing the bill at the theatre is "Cuban Pete."

"The Green Years" with Tom Drake and Charles Coburn is drawing audiences by the flocks to the State where it has returned for another engagement. A story Collision Mars you'll not soon forget is to be found in this film.
