

Light Comedy Interlude To Feature Haymes Show

It's party night again at the musical meetin' house where Dick Haymes and Helen Forrest blend songs and "dramma" on the "Dick Haymes Show" at 8 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

In a light comedy interlude scripted by Harry Kronman, Haymes showcases his dramatic talents, building up to one of the baritone's favorite "memory songs."

Even while sick in bed, Henry Aldrich manages to stir up plenty of commotion, during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 7 p. m. Thursday over NBC. Henry, along with pal Homer's help, always manages to not only get his own home in an uproar but the rest of the community also. His antics this time lead to something unexpected by himself as well as listeners.

Stars of stage, screen and radio, skating champions and other luminaries of the ice arena will be heard on a special MBS preview broadcast of the forthcoming nationwide tour of the 1946 Shipstad and Johnson Ice Polles to be heard at 11 p. m. Thursday over MBS.

Dane Clark will be heard as a hardened professional murderer who believes himself without emotions, until he falls in love, when he stars in "Till the Day I Die" on "Suspense."

The program is to be heard at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS. By one of those quirks of fate, the object of his devotion is the widow of this most recent victim.
