

Gov. Earl Warren Guests On Charlie McCarthy Show

Charlie McCarthy, Edgar Bergen's "bad boy," had better watch his step at 7 p. m. Sunday over NBC when he entertains California's Gov. Earl Warren at the naval air station at Alameda, Calif. Gov. Warren is interested in law enforcement and in recent years he has contributed several articles on this subject to various journals.

Nino Ventura, New York City tenor, late of the Navy, is the soaring young artist who will be co-featured with Raymond Massey and Howard Barlow on the "Har-

Bogus Check Artist Hits Furniture Firms

Police have received reports from Delphos and Wapakoneta of activities of a man passing worthless checks on furniture dealers.

His method of operation is to purchase a quantity of merchandise, offer a check of several hundred dollars in payment, and state that he will return in several days and instruct them as to delivery.

Writing Sets and Passes Offered Essay Writers

Some lucky boy or girl from each of the city's 16 grade schools is going to be presented a pen and pencil set and in addition three of them will receive passes to a local theatre.

W. H. Boden, chairman of the Lion's club fire prevention committee which is sponsoring an essay contest for fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils, announced Saturday the prizes which will be available to the various winners.

Boden said that each school winner will receive a pen and pencil set from the club and in addition the writer of the best essay in the city will receive a pass to the Sigma theatre good for one weekly admission for a year. The second and third place winners on the city-wide basis will receive passes for six months or 26 admissions.

The passes are being made available by Ted Davidson, a Lions' club member and manager of the Sigma theatre.

All of the school winners will be guests of the Lions' club at a luncheon Wednesday, Oct. 9, in the Barr hotel at which time the prizes will be awarded.

The essay contest is being held in connection with fire prevention week Oct. 6-12 and the subject on which the pupils have been asked
