Tallulah Bankhead Is Star In "Royal Scandal" At Lyric

Tallulah Bankhead and William Eythe have the leading roles in "A Royal Scandal" opening at the Lyric theatre Monday.

With a story telling of Catherine the Great of Russia and her private life, the picture proves interesting and historical at the same time. Sharing the billing is "Tars and Spars."

Bob Hope tops all of his performances along the comedy line with "Monsieur Benucaire" now showing at the Ohio theatre. Hope, who is staired with Joan Caulfield and Patric Knowles becomes the dandy of the 18th century when he trades places with a duke and nearly becomes matried to a

"Home Sweet Homicide" brings things back to current day events with its showing at the Quilna theatre. Peggy Ann Gainer, Randolph Scott and Lynn Bair have the leading roles in the film which is about three youngsters who try to solve a murder mystery. Co-featured is "Under Nevada Skies."

"Night In Casablanca" with the Marx Brothers, now showing at the Sigma theatre, continues to tickle the funny bone of the fans of these three funny fellows. Unusual to the extent that few people would know that Casablanca in this film was the same one in which a world conference was held, the picture has the Marx Brothers doing everything from managing a hotel to robbing its patrons.

"Canyon Passage" now showing at the State theatre brings some of the most spectacular scenery to the screen ever wished for by nature lovers. Susan Hayward, Dana Andrews and Brian Donlevy are the stars of the film which shares the billing with "She Wolf of London.'

"Yellow Rose of Texas" and "Pistol Packin' Mama" will bow out at the Lima Drive-In theatre Tuesday when "Thorobreds" and "Chicago Kid" come in to replace them Now at the Gloria Drive-In theatre is "Man From Frisco" with Michael O'Shea.
