Youth Speakers Aid Fund Drive

Teen-Agers Address City Organizations

Teen-age speakers officially opened activities of the city-wide Youth Speakers' Bureau this week with a full half-hour program at the Rotary club luncheon meeting on Wednesday, and with three young people presenting five-minute talks before the Gyo club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary, and the Knights of Pythias.

Sponsored by the Madison Youth council in cooperation with the city high schools, this Youth Speakers' Bureau has been organized in conjunction with this year's Community Chest campaign so that selected and trained youth speakers can appear before Madison organizations to tell about the various Chest agencies and the part they play in our community's life.

Speakers Listed

Tuesday's speakers were Angeline Rundell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Rundell, 2314 Van Hise ave., who spoke at the Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary meeting; Duane Caspar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Caspar, 114 South Orchard st., who talked before the Gyo Club, and the Knights of Pythias heard George "Skip" Stebbins, son of Dr. and Mrs. George G. Stebbins.

The Rotary Club's on Wednesday heard Tom Peterson, president of the Madison Youth council and son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Peterson, 1111 Grant st.
