OUR BOARDING HOUSE WIG MAJOR HOOPLE 'Crack-Up' Due at Sigma For Three - Day Engagement

Claire Trevor, Pat O'Brien and Herbert Marshall are the stars of the film, "Crack-up," scheduled for opening Wednesday at the Sigma Widely advertised in magazines across the United States, the picture has a very unusual twist of mystery seldom captured by movies. Sharing the billing will be "Accomplice."

Dorothy McGuire has a highly sympathetic role as the heroine of an absorbing drama of emotional and economic problems facing the honorably discharged soldier, as presented in the romantic "Till the End of Time" now at the Ohio theatre. The film personalizes today's rehabilitation problem in the matter of three typical Marine heroes, Guy Madison, Robert Mitchum and Bill Williams.

"Suspense," now showing at the Quilna theatre, is according to reports by fans, a spine-chiller extraordinary. Starring Belita, Barry Sullivan, Albert Dekker and Bonita Granville, the film brings the established talents of these time-tried players to the screen to give the picture an utterly convincing quality.

"Night and Day," now at the State theatre with Cary Grant and Alexis Smith, will bow out Wednesday as "Lover Come Back" and "Cat Creeps" come in to replace it. "Night and Day" is in technicolor and has for its stars two of Hollywood's 'shining' stars. Both are well-schooled in character portrayal and play their roles to perfection.

Talk About a Lady" and "Leave Her To Heaven" are the current features at the Lyric theatre. The latter film stars Gene Tierney, Jeanne Crain and Cornel

"Why Girls Leave Home" and "Trail of Kit Carson" are the films scheduled for opening at the Allen theatre Wednesday. Now showing are "Convicts' Code" and "Wildfire."

"Colt Comiades" and "The Great Mike" currently are showing at the Lima Drive-In theatre while at the Gloria Drive-In is "Bandit of Sherwood Forest" with Cornel Wilde.
