

'Perilous Holiday' Starts Monday for Three Day Run

Pat O'Brien has the leading role in the Lyric's film opening Monday, entitled "Perilous Holiday."

Just as the title denotes, the film is a mystery with O'Brien in the thick of the fighting and gun play. Sharing the billing at the theatre will be "Behind Green Lights," another suspense-filled film certain to please those looking for a double-feature mystery.

Gary Cooper, Robert Alda and Lilli Palmer keep things moving rapidly at the Ohio where they currently are to be seen in "Cloak and Dagger." Cooper plays an unusual role and turns in a commendable performance.

"Black Beauty" at the Quilna brings together for the first time the new star, Mona Freeman, and Richard Denning, whose past performances have gained for him that certain prestige in the film world. The film in which they are starred is based on the best-seller of the same name.

Edward G. Robinson plays the role of the hunter and Orson Welles, that of the hunted in the Sigma's film, "The Stranger." Loretta Young plays the romantic interest in the picture, which tells of an unpunished Nazi war criminal and his capture.

Olivia DeHavilland makes her bid for the coveted Academy Award in "To Each His Own," now showing at the State. Phillip Terry and John Lund are co-stars in the film which shares the billing with "Her Adventurous Night."

Alan Ladd has the top role in "Lucky Mr. Jordan" now showing at the Allen. Sharing the bill is "Moon over Montana."

"Block Busters" and "I'm from Arkansas" are at the Lima Drive-In, while "Spiral Staircase" is the feature at the Gloria Drive-In.

TEACHERS TO MEET
COLUMBUS, Oct. 7 — (INS) — Nine hundred-sixty Ohio rural school administrators will be briefed for a full day Oct. 15 in Columbus as to the best means of recruiting teachers and improving the quality of those already at work.

OPA DEATH URGED
WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 — (INS) — Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Producers-Association of America, advised tonight that war controls be abandoned immediately, and that prices be decontrolled at the earliest practical moment.

NOT ANCIENT ART
The mounting of turquoise in silver is not an ancient art with the southwest Indians. The Navajos began it in New Mexico about 70 years ago.

Two English sailors planted the British flag at the Cape of Good Hope in 1620.

Tierney and Price Recreate Dramatic 'Dragonwyck' Roles

"Dragonwyck," a moody, psychological drama laid in a feudal Dutch manor overlooking the Hudson river will be presented by the Lux Radio theatre at 9 p. m. Monday over CBS. Gene Tierney and Vincent Price will recreate their memorable film roles of Miranda and Nicholas. William Keighly is the producer and Lou Silvers directs background music for the full-hour program.

As native tom-toms beat their mournful rhythm of death and disaster, Bulldog Drummond and Denny come to the aid of a terrified community in Africa, during "The Adventures of Bulldog Drummond," to be heard at 8 p. m. over Mutual.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, will speak in connection with the opening of the national convention of the A. F. of L. on a special MBS broadcast from Chicago, to be heard at 10:30 p. m.

Freddie Bartholomew, 21-year-old Hollywood screen veteran, will play a background nephew of villainous aunt in "The Listener" on "Inner Sanctum" at 8 p. m. over CBS.

The right answers bring bundles of cigarettes and money to lucky contestants on Bob Hawick's quiz at 7:30 p. m. over CBS. Between laughs, smokes will be sent to recuperating GI's in the Veterans' hospitals at Breckville, and Legion, Tex.; U. S. Bruns General hospital, Santa Fe, N. M.; U. S. Naval hospital, Portsmouth, N. H., and the U. S. Marine hospital, Memphis, Tenn.
