Peggy Ann Garner Stars In 'Junior Miss' at Lyric

Peggy Ann Garner has the leading role in "Junior Miss" now showing at the Lyric theatre.

Miss Garner presents an amusing performance in her role as a younger daughter of a New York family. She insists on getting into more jams than her parents could possibly get her out of. Sharing the billing is "Devil's Mask."

For a technicolor treat not to be forgotten, film fans will want to see the Ohio's "Holiday in Mexico" with Walter Pidgeon, Jane Powell, Ilona Massey, Roddy McDowall and Jose Iturbi.

Vivian Blaine is a blonde in the film, "If I'm Lucky," now showing at the Quilna. Harry James, Perry Como and Carmen Miranda have the leading roles in the film which shares the billing with "Strange Triangle" with Preston Foster.

Joan Davis once again has been cast in the role of the comedienne in "She Wrote the Book," now showing at the Sigma. The book, titled "Always Lulu," (a take-off on "Forever Amber") is the basis of the picture. Sharing the bill is "Black Angel."

Van Johnson has the leading role in the film at the State, "Easy to Wed." Sharing stellar honors are Esther Williams, Lucille Ball and Keenan Wynn while the co-feature is "The Man in Grey."

"Spooks Run Wild" and "Stranger from Santa Fe" are the films now on tap at the Allen. Opening Wednesday will be "Federal Fugitive" and "Pass Key to Danger."

Roy Rogers is featured in "Song of Nevada" showing with "Talk about a Lady" at the Lima Drive-In while at the Gloria Drive-In is "Blood on the Sun" with James Cagney.

SUFFER FOOD POISONING

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14—(AP)—Seven persons were treated at General hospital yesterday for what doctors described as poisoning after they had eaten together at a family reunion dinner. All were released within a few hours. Capt. Irvin Martin of the life squad said a portion of the roast beef, which was the main dish at the dinner, had been taken to hospital chemists for examination.

Don't try to hurry the thawing of meat by soaking it in water, hot or cold, as soaking will cause the loss of good juices.

Bridges Flies To Washington

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14—(INS)—Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (CIO), was en route by air today to Washington.

Longshore union officials in San Francisco announced that Bridges left for the nation's capital yesterday at the invitation of the CIO Marine Engineers to participate in discussions designed to end the nationwide shipping tieup.

Bridges is co-chairman of the CIO-sponsored Committee for Maritime unity.

Bridges' own union has reportedly come to an agreement with the Pacific Coast Waterfront Employers'-assn on a new contract, but members will not return to work until the engineers' dispute is settled.

FIRE HITS GRAIN STORAGE

BETHEL, Oct. 14—(AP)—Fire of undetermined origin swept thru a grain storage barn here yesterday causing nearly $5,000 damages. Owner Robert B. Hamilton said three tons of fertilizer and a coal truck were included in the loss.

WAR SURVIVOR KILLED

COLUMBUS, Oct. 14—(AP)—Daniel L. Rose, 23, was at Pearl Harbor when the Japs bombed, at Europe for D-Day and was wounded three times in France and Germany. Yesterday, weeks before his recent bride was to arrive from Great Britain, his car struck a concrete railing and he was killed.

Barbed wire was invented in 1867.

Bogart, Bacall To Re-Create 'To Have and Have Not' Roles

Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall will re-create the roles they played on the screen when "To Have and Have Not" is presented on the Lux Radio theatre at 9 p. m. Monday over the Columbia network. William Keighley is the producer of the hour-long theatre of the air.

Conductor Howard Barlow again will have Christopher Lynch, young Irish tenor and protege of the late John McCormack, as the guest star with his symphonic orchestra on the "Voice of Firestone" concert at 8:30 p. m. over NBC.

A prizefight turns into murder before the eyes of thousands of horrified spectators and Bulldog Drummond decides to find out why big-time gamblers were betting on the wrong man, in the latest of the "Adventures of Bulldog Drummond," to be heard at 8 p. m. over Mutual.

A girl who won't stay dead and a man who tells skeptical cops about her are mournful figures in the mystery, "Strange Passenger," on "Inner Sanctum" at 8 p. m. over CBS.

Guy Lombardo puts the musical accent on a new holiday number, "Christmas Island," as he leads his Royal Canadians in their regular appearance on Mutual's "Spotlight Bands," at 9:30 p. m.

Five tunes from "Roberta," including "I Won't Dance," "The Touch of your Hand," "Lovely to Look at," "Yesterdays" and "Smoke Gets in your Eyes," will be presented in the unique orchestral and choral styling of "California Melodies" over MBS at 10 p. m. Harry Zimmerman also directs the orchestra in Irving Berlin's "You Keep Coming Back like a Song," and "The Way that the Wind Blows Tonight."
