'My Pal Trigger' Due To Open In Hollywood At Quilna Theatre on Friday

All of the charm and atmosphere which made "My Friend Flicka" popular is captured in the newest Roy Rogers musical western, "My Pal Trigger," opening Friday at the Quilna theatre.

Concurrent with the equine romance to be found in the picture, is a spirited and lively human romance between Roy Rogers, the star, and his leading lady, Dale Evans. The touching moments are ably balanced by songs and comedy by THEATRE GUIDE

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24—(NEA) -Bill Demarest received a call from Frank Capra to play an unusual role in "It's a Wonderful Life"—the unseen role of a voice in heaven. Bill was wondering whether or not he should accept the part, when his wife made up his mind for him.

"Bill," she said, "you'd better take it It will be the only time your voice is ever heard in heaven." Bill took it.

Incidentally, we nominate Bill right now for an Oscar for the best supporting performance of the year as Al Jolson's manager in 'The Jolson Story." Wait till you see him!

Dorothy Lamour wears a "whistle dress" for a scene in "The Big Haircut." The fashion designer describes it thus: "A whistle dress is one containing very little textile material-but all the material possible for making other gals hate the gal who's wearing it."

Top This One A comedian was being heckled at the Starlit Room by a table of girls who had had too many cocktails. But the comic had the last word: "Youre table reminds me of a baseball game. The bags are loaded." . . . Paramount has bought "Accent on Youth" as a possible Bing Crosby musical.

Hollywood's series-of-three superstition has struck again

Three days after finishing work in "The Private Affairs of Bel Ami," Ann Dvorak divorced Leslie Fenton. A week later Angela Lansbury, also in the film, divorced Richard Cromwell. And now star George Sanders has separated from his wife, Elsie Larson.
