Something New in Fun Films E Billed for Showing at Lyric D

"Secrets of a Sorority Girl" and "In Fast Company" are the two films billed at the Lyric theatre beginning Monday. Both are entertaining and bring something new to the screen of the local show house. The Ohio's film, "Caesar and Cleopatra," is letting folks know what type movies England can make. Claude Rains and Vivien Leigh have the leading roles in this picture which takes film goers back in history when Rome was the most powerful city in the world. With a light, humorous theme, the pieture attempts to show Caesar as a suave and engaging romantic, rather than the tyrant history books make him out to be, and Cleopatra, but a child, and not the sultry, overbearing queen that it's been recorded she was.

"My Pal Trigger" at the Quilna is another unforgettable picture of a horse. It is based, partially, on the real life of Roy Rogers' trick horse, Trigger. Sharing the billing is "Earl Carroll's Sketchbook" with Constance Moore.

George Raft and Sylvia Sidney once again turn in performances, which help add rungs to their already lengthy ladder of fame, in "Mr. Ace," now showing at the Sigma. "Little Miss Big" is the co-feature.

Lauren Bacall, who made her debut to the American public in "To Have and Have Not," is now at the State in "The Big Sleep" with Humphrey Bogart. The cofeature is "Cuban Pete."

Buster Crabbe has the lead in "Frontier Outlaw" new showing at the Allen with "Boss of Big Town," starring John Litel, as the co-feature. Opening Wednesday will be "Hurricane" and "Brand of the Devil."

"Hoppy Serves a Writ" with William Boyd now is playing at the Drive-In along with "Over My Dead Body." Wednesday will bring "Last of the Duanes" and "The Spider." The Gloria Drive-In is featuring "Rise and Shine" and will open Wednesday with "Sun-
