

Expose of Corrupt Politics Is Theme of Film at Sigma

The private life of a glamorous and ambitious congresswoman is the theme of the George Raft-Sylvia Sydney starrer, "Mr. Ace," which is being held over at the Sigma theatre a few more days.

Raft and Miss Sydney star in the roles of Eddie Ace, the political boss, and Congresswoman Margaret Chase, respectively and the story revolves about the latter's call upon the political machinery of a state for support of her nomination as a candidate for governorship. Dynamically attracted, they fall in love—but Eddie refuses his very necessary political support. Sharing the billing is "Little Miss Big."

"Caesar and Cleopatra" now at the Ohio in technicolor is thrilling Lima film fans with its magnitude. The huge sets which required time and plenty of capital bespeak of England, the home of the motion picture, as having another film capital similar to Hollywood. Vivien Leigh and Claude Rains have the starring roles.

"Earl Carroll's Sketchbook" the co-feature at the Quilna, is getting more than just a word or two of approval for those who have seen it. Once again Hollywood has interpreted the shows put on by the master cafe-owner into something for film fans. "My Pal Trigger," with Roy Rogers and Dale Evans is the feature film.

Humphrey Bogart presents another of his famous "toughie" performances in "The Big Sleep" in which he is starred with Lauren Bacall. Now at the State, the picture shows the billing with "Cuban Pete." Opening Thursday will be "The Bride Wore Boots" and "Garden of Allah."

"Secrets of a Sorority Girl" and "In Fast Company" are the features now showing at the Lyric where "Rainbow Over Texas" and "Woman Who Came Back" are scheduled for opening Thursday. "Hurricane" with Dorothy Lamour and Jon Hall will open Wednesday at the Allen with "Brand of the Devil" as the co-feature. Now playing at the theatre are "Frontier Outlaw" and "Boss of Big Town."

Stalin Said Ordering Halt to Dismantling
LONDON, Oct. 29.—(INS)—The Daily Mail reported today that Premier Stalin has ordered a halt in the dismantling of the Zeiss glass and optical works at Jena, Germany, as a result of protests from 20 thousand persons employed in the factory.

The dispatch, which originated in Berlin, said Stalin's directive was sent to Marshal Vassily Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in Germany. Sokolovsky reportedly sent a representative to Jena to discuss the change in orders with Russian directors at the Zeiss plant.
