

Cary Grant, Nigel Bruce Star In Original 'Suspicion' Roles

Cary Grant and Nigel Bruce will have their original roles in the radio version of Alfred Hitchcock's suspense film, "Suspicion," on the "Academy Award" program, at 10 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Elmer Davis, the well-known author and director of the wartime Office of War Information, and Jan Struther, who wrote the memorable "Mrs. Miniver," will be "Information Please" guests at 10:30 p. m. over CBS.

Clifton Fadiman, master of ceremonies, and program regulars Franklin P. Adams and John Kieran, will help to keep the conversation ball rolling on the half-hour question-and-answer program.

Rear-Admiral H. B. (Min) Miller, the Navy's wartime director of public information and an experienced author, will be armchair detective for "The Adventure of Elery Queen's Rival" at 7:30 p. m. over CBS.

Snazzily styled tunes from south of the border, including "The Peanut Vendor," "Miserable," "Jarabe Tapatio" (Mexican hat dance) and "Aye, Aye, Aye," highlight the musical bill of fare as Xavier Cugat and his orchestra make their weekly appearance on Mutual's "Spotlight Bands" series at 9:30 p. m.

A friend in need may be a friend in deed but a friend in the way is a nuisance—so decides "The Great Gildersleeve" in his comedy broadcast at 8:30 p. m. over NBC. Gilly feels that being water commissioner of Summerfield is not sufficient activity for him, so considers going into the real estate business. But his friend, Judge Hooker, complicates matters and makes Gildersleeve regret getting involved in the new venture.

Unscrupulous politicians, aiming to oust the "D. A.," seek to involve him in a scandal which leads to murder during "The Case of the Man Who" on NBC District Attorney" over NBC at 9:30 p. m.

Train Hits Truck; Truck Hits Back

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 30.—(AP)—A train struck a truck here—and the truck struck back. The train won the decision.

Lester Shelton, 51, was driving the truck when it was hit by a speeding passenger train. The truck was shoved into a yard, remained in gear and ran back into the side of the train. It bounced along for about half a block before disintegrating itself.

Shelton was treated in Culver hospital for minor injuries.

HOME OPENED

AKRON, Oct. 30.—(INS)—Leonora Hall, a former West Akron residence, was opened today under the direction of the Daughters of Divine Charity as a new home for dependent Catholic girls in Summit-co. Admission will be made thru the Catholic Service league.

HOTEL MAN DIES

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Killian C. Frey, former operator of the Marion (O.) hotel, died yesterday. He was 82. Frey, who retired 15 years ago, operated hotels in Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin in addition to Ohio for 30 years.
