

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:15 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker Interviews Jonathan Daniels, author and editor.
- 12:45 p. m.—WMAQ—Football: Notre Dame vs. Navy.
- 1:00—WLS—Football: Army vs. West Virginia.
- 1:45—W-G-N, WJJD, WIND, WBBM—Football: Northwestern vs. Ohio State. Also on WMAQ at 3:30 p. m.
- 1:45—WILL—Football: Illinois vs. Iowa.
- 1:45—WCFL—Football: Georgia vs. Alabama.
- 5:45 p. m.—W-G-N—Sons of Safety: Awards to two safety patrol boys by James S. Bulger, Leslie Sorensen, James Griffin, and the Rev. Stanley Stoga.
- 6:00—WMAQ—Our Foreign Policy: Sen. Connally [D., Tex.] and John Foster Dulles on "Issues Before the U. N. Assembly."

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 9:30 a. m.—W-G-N—Hi-Time. Guest: Bob Hoernschemeyer, Rocket's star.
- 9:30—WCFL—Junior Junction, with Dick York, Lola Ameeche, and Mary Hartline.
- 6:30 p. m.—WMAQ—Curtain Time: "A Chip Off the Old Block."
- 7:00—W-G-N—Twenty Questions: Guest: Glenda Farrell.
- 7:00—WBBM—Hollywood Star Time: Frank Morgan in "Holy Matrimony."
- 7:30—W-G-N—Juvenile Jury: Youngsters advise other youngsters.
- 8:00—W-G-N—Mystery Playhouse presents "Three to Go."
- 8:00—WMAQ—Roy Rogers show, with Pat Buttram and Dale Evans.
- 8:30—W-G-N—Leave It to the Girls. Guest: Patric Bright.
- 8:30—WCFL—Sherlock Holmes, with Tom Conway in title role.
- 9:00—WMAQ—Judy Canova show: Judy joins the hunt club.
- 9:15—WBBM—This Is Hollywood: Eddle Albert and Marsha Hunt in "Reveous with Annie."
- 10:15—WBBM—Columbia Workshop: Kenny Delmar [Sen. Claghorn] in "Lee Fountain Comes of Age."

MUSIC

- 7:00 p. m.—WGNB—Symphony Hour: "Romeo and Juliet Overture."
- 8:00—WBBM—Your Hit Parade, with Andy Russell and Mark Warnow.
- 9:00—W-G-N—Chicago Theater of the Air: "La Traviata," with Andzia Kuzak, Thomas Hayward, George Tozzi, and Henry Weber, conducting. Speaker: Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.
- 9:15—WIND—Symphonic Hour: Stravinsky's "Petrouchka."
- 9:30—WFPM—Composers' Hour: Liszt's Concerto No. 1 in Flat Minor.
- 9:45—WBBM—Wayne King show, with Nancy Evans and Billy Leach.