Gene Krupa and Band Here At Ohio for One Day Show

When Gene Krupa's band makes a personal appearance at a theatre it invariably leaves the audience limp but crying for more. Krupa, who will appear at the Ohio Tuesday is both a capable maestro and a talented and entertaining showman.

Most leaders have lost popularity for their lack of personality and stage presence, but Gene, whose recorded and radio music ranks with the finest in the land is top-notch in both. On the screen with the Kiupa band appearance will be "Personality Kid."

"Second Chorus" with Fred Astane and Paulette Goddard is the feature now on tap at the Quilna. Here for a few days engagement, the picture brings such notables as Charlie Butterworth and Artic Shaw and his orchestra back to the limelight. Sharing the billing is "Belle Sylvia Sidney and Ann Richards are the feminine stars of the film "The Searching Wind," now showing at the Sigma. Robert Young takes the male lead as an American diplomat who loves one woman and is married to another. "Shadowed" is the co-feature.

Jack Carson is at his funniest in the film "Two Guys From Milwaukee" in which he is statted with Dennis Morgan. It all begins when a prince arrives in this country and seeks 24 hours of freedom from his royal status just to be like an American. Catson assists in the finding out of just what freedom can mean

"Cherokee Flash" and "South of Monterey" are due for opening Thursday at the Lyric where "Joe Palooka. Champ" and "Three Stooges" now is showing.

"Dead End" with Sylvia Sidney, Joel McCrea and Humphrey Bogart will open Wednesday at the Allen with "Rhythm of the Rio Grande." Now showing is "North-west Trail" and "China"

"Minstrel Man" and "Sergeant Mike" will bow out at the Gloria Dilye-In Tuesday as "Whispering Ghosts" and "Col Effingham's Raid" comes in to replace them.

The lion and the tiger occasionally hypridize.
