

'Three Wise Fools' Hold Over At Sigma Theatre Till Friday

Filmom's lovable little queen of the screen, Margaret O'Brien, will be seen in "Three Wise Fools," the Sigma theatre's current attraction, for a few more days.

Requests have been poured in making it necessary for the holding over of the film in order that all who wish to may see it. Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Lewis Stone and Thomas Mitchell have outstanding roles in picture which once again gives the young screen star another vehicle in which she can add more fame to that all-ready well-stocked screen popularity ladder.

A musician long since thought dead arrives on the scene to throw into chaos what seems to be a very beautiful romance. Bette Davis, Paul Henreid and Claude Rains have the leading roles in this particular film which brings a story of mystery, suspense and romance to the screen of the Ohio in "Deception."

Returned by popular demand to the Quilna is "Chad Hanna" with Henry Fonda and Dorothy Lamour. Sharing the billing opening Tuesday is "Rise and Shine."

Several closely-guarded secrets of the war, now released, form the plot of the State's movie "OSS" in which Alan Ladd, Geraldine Fitzgerald and Patricia Knowles have the starring roles. Here's another film which will offer all suspense fans could want in the line of "edge-of-the-chair movies."

John Payne and Maureen O'Hara will bow out at the Lyric Wednesday with the film "Sentimental Journey" to make way for the film due Thursday, "Gallop Thunder" which is co-featured with "Missing Lady."

On tap at the Allen Wednesday will be "I Wanted Wings" and "Badman of Thundergap" coming in to replace "Typhoon" with Dorothy Lamour and "Ghost Breakers."

"Harvest Melody" and "Cyclone Prairie Ranger" also will bow in at the Gloria Drive-In Wednesday as "Ablene Town" and "Boston Blackie Booked on Suspicion" leave.

Gregory Peck Tries To Enter Hades in 'Heaven Can Wait'

Gregory Peck, outstanding screen star, makes his second appearance on "Hollywood Players" Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over CBS, to star in "Heaven Can Wait." Adapted from the hit film, this is the unusual story of a man who dies and is interviewed by the Final Judge on the threshold of Hades to determine whether he merits becoming a star boarder. In a series of flashbacks the man tells the story of his colorful life, which builds up to a surprising climax.

Walt Disney will be interviewed on Vox Pop by Parks Johnson and Warren Hull at the Atlanta world premiere of Disney's new "Song of the South," based on the "Uncle Remus" stories of Joel Chandler Harris, at 9 p. m. over CBS. The Kingfish gets a new automobile as his first official act as he starts driving is to wreck a passing car, during the "Amos 'n' Andy" broadcast at 9 p. m. over NBC. The Kingfish thinks he will get away with it because only Andy saw the accident, but he soon finds things closing in on him.

The Foster family attends a radio quiz show called "Guess and Give" during the broadcast of "A Date with Judy," over NBC at 8:30 p. m. The program takes on a hilarious aspect as Judy gives forth with a song and Father Foster surprises all by getting "hot" on the trombone.

PASTOR DIES
CINCINNATI, Nov. 12 (AP)—Mear George Henry Coors, for 22 years pastor of Holy Family Catholic church here, died in Good Samaritan hospital last night. He was 86.
