

'Wife of Monte Cristo' Due At Lyric Theatre on Monday

John Loder and Lunore Aubert have the leading roles in the film, "Wife of Monte Cristo," opening at the Lyric theatre Monday.

All of the flaming action which spurred the book entitled "Count of Monte Cristo," has been incorporated partially in this film which dates back in history to the days of chivalry and knights in armour. Sharing the billing will be "Wild Beast at Bay."

Danny Kaye, star of "Kid From Brooklyn," can well carry the term, "a three ring circus personified" in his current feature at the Ohio. Virginia Mayo and Vera-Ellen share top honors with Kaye as he whizzes thru the role of a milkman who, quite by accident of course, knocks out boxing's World's Champion.

Glenn Ford and Janet Blair are a team destined to be a hit screen couple and doubtless will be seen together many more times. Fans' reception of the film now at the Quilna titled "Gallant Journey" has been tremendous, according to reports. Sharing the bill is "God's Country."

Gymnast Staged Sunday

A remarkably large turnout for the Lima Choral Society's Gymnast Sunday in Grace Methodist church was reported by Earl C. Rohn, president of the organization.

Edward Blythin, former mayor of Cleveland, addressed the audience briefly, stressing the damage done to character by the war and the need for fair dealing, honesty and justice in negotiating the peace and in the reconversion from regimentation to a free

County To Vacate Land in Elida

The Allen-co board of commissioners has laid plans for vacating parts of several parcels of land in Elida acquired for construction of U. S. Route 30-S but not being used for highway purposes.

The board has scheduled viewing of the easements involved for Dec. 16 and a hearing on the proposal for Dec. 18.

Joan Davis Craves New Car, Enters Safe-Driving Contest

Joan Davis, who thinks the white line in the middle of highways is for bicycles, enters a safe-driving contest to win a new car during "The Joan Davis Show," Monday at 8:30 p. m. over CBS.

A deathbed confession of a murderer with an alibi will star actor Larry Haines in "Highway to Death" on the "Inner Sanctum" horror mystery program at 8 p. m. over CBS.

Bob Hawk's comedy quiz heard at 7:30 p. m. over CBS, finds Bob armed with questions and rewarding correct answers with cash and cigars. The program's duffle bag of smokes will be divided among the veterans hospitals in Lyons, N. J., and Murfreesboro, Tenn.; U. S. Murphy General hospital, Waltham, Mass.; U. S. Naval hospital, San Diego, Calif., and U. S. Marine hospital, Detroit, Mich. Music, under the direction of Charles White, is furnished by Peter Van Steeden and his band.

Radio notes—Trade gossip is that something definitely must be done about the shipping Bing Crosby Hooper rating (recently dropped from 24 to 12) . . . Rise Stevens and Jimmy Carroll to headline the "Family Hour" starting Dec. 8 . . . Reports are that Phil Harris is unhappy about the type of character he portrays of his own program with Alice Faye . . . Kate Smith's Sunday night CBS program has taken a phenomenal jump of 32 over the previous rating. This gives her a mark of 11.5, highest among gal singers . . . Perry Como's network debut as a solo artist was almost completely unattended. His studio audience on that first show some two years ago consisted of one person—his wife . . . Sammy Kaye, an alumnus of Ohio university, has been elected by its Alumni-asso as one of the 10 leading graduates.
