Hoosier Schoolboy' Opens At Sigma This Wednesday

Mickey Rooney will return to the Sigma theatre Wednesday in one of his best-loved roles, that of the "Hoosier Schoolboy."

Rooney, who long since has been in the limelight with his portrayals of Andy Hardy, brings to life the role which started him on his long and successful screen career. Sharing the bill will be "Right Man" with Alan Ladd, another first for a star who since has become famous in toughie roles. Danny Kaye's capacity for presenting some of the craziest comedy since a previous film he turned out, "Wonder Man," to this movie reviewer is actually astounding. In his new film at the Ohio, "Kid from Brooklyn," Kaye once again puts his whacky antics to work bringing in laughs by the score.

Glenn Ford and Janet Blair head the cast of the Quilna's current attraction, "Gallant Journey," which opened Friday. Ford has the role of an inventor and Miss Blair, the role of his wife. Sharing the bill is "God's Country."

Bowing out at the State Wednesday will be "Courage of Lassie," which has been the feature there since Friday and has had as its stars Elizabeth Taylor, Frank Morgan and Tom Drake. Opening Thursday will be "Crack-up" with Pat O'Brien. Claire Trevor and Herbert Marshall.

'Wife of Monte Cristo" and "Wild Beasts at Bay" are the films now on tan at the Lyric-Opening there Thursday will be Gentleman from Texas" and "Cat Man from Paris."

"Smart Alceks" with the East Side Kids and "Drifting Along" are scheduled to leave the Allen Tuesday as "The Virginian," with Joel McCrea, Brian Donlevy, Sonny Tufts and Barbara Britton bow in. "Fighting Pals" will be the co-feature.

"Joe Palooka, Champ" and "Border Bandits" are booked in at the Gloria Drive-In for opening Wednesday. Currently playing at the theatre are "Junior Prom" and "Melody Trail."
