Harvard, Yale Melodies Heard On Eve of Traditional Battle

On the eve of the Harvard-Yale football game, singing star Mac Morgan and Paul Lavalle, the orchestra and choir will broadcast the traditional songs of the New England universities on "Highways in Melody," Friday at 8 p. m. over NBC. Billy De Wolfe, Ginny's most consistent comedy caller, makes his sixth appearance this season on "The Ginny Simms Show," at 9 p. m. over CBS. Ginny and funnyman Billy exchange light-hearted repartee and join musical forces in Artists' Colony an original comedy duet.

Burl Ives sings "Robin He Married a Wife from the West," "Poor Boy." "Three Crows Sat on a Wall" and "I'm Goin' Down the Road Feelin' Bad," as Mutual presents another program of songs by the bard of folk ballads at

Alan Young goes in for taxi-deimy and and the hobby stuffed with amusing complications on "The Alan Young Show" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. over NBC

It takes Baby Snooks a plane trip, several telegrams, a dozen long distance calls and lots of explaining to get Mommy out of a jam, during "The Baby Snooks Show" broadcast at 8 p. m. over

A king-size bankroll, $3,770, will be the center of attraction as alert contestants face emcee Beit Parks' rapid-fire questions on "Break the Bank," at 9 p. m. on ABC.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 22-(AP)-A colony for writers, aitists, musicians and dramatists will be established at the edge of the scenic Hocking Forest state park near Logan. O., if present plans materialize. Proponents who met here vesterday arranged another meeting for Dec. 14 and 15 at Loran. Persons identified with the fine arts in Cleveland, Columbus, Toledo, Dayton, Cincinnati, Canton and Akron are expected to attend. The colony is conceived as a place where artists, writers and others would be encouraged to undertake creative work in quiet, scenic surroundings. Proponents suggested that a 500-acre tract adjoining the forest be acquired as a site, and that cabins and central dining halls and lounges be

British Girl Gains Tempered Justice

LONDON, Nov. 22 - (INS) -Justice tempered with mercy was meted out today in Assizes court ın London so Irenie Idiana Harrison-Carı could join the man she loves in the United States.

Judge Leeds sentenced the pretty, 22-year-old British girl to two-days imprisonment, which meant her immediate release on charges of bigamously marrying Quentin Frost in October, 1945. At that time, Frost was a member of the Ninth U. S. Army Air document by the court to prove tended today to key officials of Irenie, moreover, was given a she never has been in prison. This followed a defense plea that she would not be allowed to enter the United States if she had served a prison-term. Frost, meantime, is waiting in St. Louis with the couple's fourmonths-old baby, and two other children by Irenie's previous mar-

Auglaize 4-H Achievement Meeting Held

WAPAKONETA, Nov. 22

Members and advisors of Auglaize-co 4-H clubs received awards and recognition for their achievements of the last year during the annual meeting of the clubs at the Moulton school, it was reported today:

Under guidance of County Agent Clarence D. Brown, Herbert Barnes, assistant agent, and Mrs. Dorotha Stevenson, home demonstration agent, recognition was given for 4-H projects including those shown at the Auglaize-co fair and other activities. Thirty-one advisers received awards in appreciation for their services.

Guest speaker of the evening was John T. Mount, assistant state 4-H club leader, who told his audience of the importance of 4-H club work and its progress. Two piano solos were played by Miss Mary Louise Schumann. Glenna Davenport, Spencerville,
