

Dana Andrews Has Title Role In Lyric's 'Walk in the Sun'

Dana Andrews and Richard Conte have the leading roles in the Lyric film opening Monday at the theatre titled "A Walk in the Sun."

Andrews in one of his finest portrayals plays the role of a World War II warrior in Italy whose job it is to assume command of a group of men and fight thru to secure a position vital to the Allies.

For drama and suspense far beyond normal power of imagination, fans will not want to miss "Strange Love of Martha Ivers" now at the Ohio.

Robert Young, Barbara Hale and Frank Morgan combine their talents in the Lyric's "Lady Luck."

Bob Hope adds to the comedy to be found on local theatre screens with his portrayal of "Monsieur Beaucaire" in the film of the same name at the State.

"Aloma of the South Seas" with Dorothy Lamour and "Blazing Western Trails" will bow out at the Allen, Monday as "The Glass Key" with Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake, and "Navajo Kid" come in to replace them for a few days.

The art exhibit of 35 framed paintings of Army combat-artists which was to be shown beginning Nov. 11 for two weeks under the auspices of the Lima branch of the Association of University Women, will be sent on to Washington upon its arrival in Lima. A freight tie-up has delayed the arrival of the exhibit, according to Miss Lela Klinge, chairman of the art committee, and because of this delay and other situations which have arisen, the display of watercolors and gouaches will not be accepted.

Carson, Pidgeon Re-Crete Roles in 'Mrs. Parkington'

Greer Carson and Walter Pidgeon will recreate their original screen roles when they appear in "Mrs. Parkington" on the Radio Theatre at 9 p. m. Monday over CBS.

Howard Barlow will play the "March" from "Aida" to note the 71st anniversary of the American premiere of the Verdi opera and he will have Christopher Lynch as guest soloist on the "Voice of Firestone" program at 8:30 p. m. over NBC.

Bois Karloff will star in the Screen Guild Players production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" at 10 p. m. over CBS. The story is based on the very successful play by Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse in which Karloff appeared during a long run on the New York stage. It is a weird and very humorous story of a Brooklyn family whose talents seem to run to murder.

Maurice Ravel's "Introduction and Allegro" featuring Elizabeth Enechoff, harpist, is among the selections by Harry Zimmerman and the orchestra and chorus on Mutual's "California Melodies" at 10 p. m. from Hollywood. Other numbers include "You Are Everything," "For You, for Me, for Evermore" and selections from "Carousel."

Actress Anne Seymour will be guest star in "No Rest for the Dead," a grisly story of a reappearing corpse, on the "Inner Sanctum" mystery at 8 p. m. over CBS.
