'The Plainsman' Returns For Three Days at Sigma

Gary Cooper returns to the Sigma theatre Wednesday in one of the films which put him at the top of the movie fans' lists as a favorite... "The Plainsman."
The picture shares the billing with "Jungle Princess," starring Dorothy Lamour in one of her most lush jungle roles. Both returned by popular request, the two features replace "Lady Luck" which stars Robert Young, Barbara Hale and Frank Morgan, and "Thunder Rock," an English film.

Kirk Douglas, the new star being introduced to film audiences in the picture, "Strange Love of Martha Ivers," presents a very brilliant performance as the husband of Barbara Stanwyck in the film which now is showing at the Ohio. Van Heflin and Elizabeth Scott have featured roles in this movie which personifies deceit and hatefulness.
Opening Thursday at the State will be "The Stranger" and "She Wrote the Book" with Joan Davis. Currently playing at the theatre, however, is Bob Hope's latest screwball film, "Monsieur Beaucaire." Hope's wit and almost indescribable way of putting across a joke makes the meat of the film.

"Walk in the Sun" and "Queen of Burlesque" are the features now at the Lyric theatre where "Under Nevada Skies" and "Under Fiesta Stars" are scheduled for Thanksgiving Day attractions.
"The Glass Key" with Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake along with "Navajo Kid" bow in at the Allen theatre Tuesday to remain until Thursday when "Buffalo Bill" and "Rustlers' Hideout" will begin.
