

Arnold Moss To Have Lead In Play 'Alias the Best Man'

Following his successful run on Broadway in the starring role of a brusque newspaper editor in this season's revival of "The Front Page," Arnold Moss makes a guest appearance as a mild-mannered schemer in "Alias the Best Man," an original radio drama to be broadcast on "Mystery Theatre" at 10 p. m. Friday over NBC.

In tribute to the composer's silver anniversary in "Tin Pan Alley," Marion Mac Morgan, conductor Paul Lavalle, the orchestra and choir will play and sing an all Peter De Rose musical program on "Highways in Melody" at 8 p. m. over NBC.

"Henry Martyn," the musical tale of a young Scotsman who became a pilot on the high seas by mere chance "Cotton Eyed Joe," "Wanderin'" and "Oh Sally My Dear" highlight another program of songs by Burl Ives on his broadcast at 8 p. m. over MBS.

A man races thru the night in a desperate attempt to escape from his own self-loathing, but finds himself tripped up by the trusting light in a young girl's eyes, when "Love Young Theatre" presents Jim Ameche in "A Million Tomorrows" at 8:30 p. m. over MBS.

A Broadway actress challenges Nick and Nora Charles to prove her guilt in "The Case of the Chilling Chewing Gum," a mystery-comedy episode in "The Adventures of the Thin Man" to be broadcast at 8:30 p. m. over CBS.

'Wake Up and Dream' in Lima Before National Release Date

"Wake Up and Dream," starring John Payne, June Haver and Connie Marshall, reportedly, is being shown in Lima before its national release date.

Lockwood Jennings, manager of the Quilna theatre, where the film opened Thursday was as much surprised as the most unformed fan when the film was booked for his theatre. The Cleveland office from which the bookings came reported it had no material and after a talk with Twentieth Century Fox studios discovered that the studio's publicity offices hadn't begun any large campaign material but were waiting.

In a tense story of the fight of U. S. secret service operatives against a post-war underground movement in Brazil, Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman come to the Ohio in "Notorious." The task given the pair, they learn on arriving in Rio, is to discover what certain wealthy German settlers are up to. One of the leaders, Sebastian, is a former admirer of Alicia and he soon gets around to proposing marriage—a move that Grant, as Devlin, views with mixed feelings.

Ted Davidson, manager of the Sigma theatre, announced Friday the continuation of the Juvenile Joy Shows at his theatre. The show scheduled for 10 a. m. Saturday is "The Christmas Carol" which is an adaptation from the original Charles Dickens story. Lionel Barrymore is narrator.

Opening Saturday at the Sigma will be "White Tie and Tails" and "Devil's Roundup." The latter is a new Hopalong Cassidy film with William Boyd in the starring role. Now showing at the theatre is "Scandal in Paris" with George Sanders, Carole Landis and Signe Hasso with the co-feature being "Lady Chaser."

Sunday will bring "Till the End of Time" with Dorothy McGuire, Guy Madison, Bill Williams and Robert Mitchell, to the State. Because of its top rating the film has been billed by itself. Now playing are "Time of Their Lives"
