A plot against the United States is hastily looked into by secret service agents in the film, "Notorious," now at the Ohio. Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman have the leading roles in the picture which tells of the workings of the German underground in Brazil and how two persons finally break the menacing grip of a small group of Germans seems to have on a number of persons.

Opening at the Quilna Friday will be "The Bowery" with Wallace Beery and Marjorie Main. Now showing are "Wake Up and Dream" with John Payne, June 'Haver and Connie Marshall, cofeatured with "Last Crooked Mile."

Two English stars, Phyllis Calvert and James Mason, bring action to a thundering crescendo in the film "They Were Sisters," opening Wednesday at the Sigma. The film relates the story of three sisters, one happily married, while the other two are very much the opposite. "Under the Big Top" is the co-feature.

Now showing at the Lyric is "Accomplice" with Richard Arlen, also "Stagecoach" with Claire Trevor, Thomas Mitchell and John Boris Karloff and "Ambush Trail" Wayne. Opening Thursday will "Two-Fisted Stranger" and "Under Cover Woman."
