Mechanic Confesses Taking Car, and Ride

The theft of a car last Saturday night from Arthur Moss, 214 S. Murray st., was solved late Wednesday with the confession of a mechanic who has Moss' permission to use the car.

The mechanic said he had taken the car to drive a married woman friend to Watertown, and when they wrecked the car near Watertown, they abandoned it because he did not want the woman involved in a police investiga-tion. He made the confession after police arrested a 38-year-old friend of his on suspicion of the

No charges were placed against the mechanic at the request of Moss, but he received a reprimand from police for withholding information.

Last year 651 persons died from tuberculosis in Wisconsin, compared to more than 2,400 in 1910. The society attributed much of the progress to educational campaigns stressing the importance of early detection of tuberculosis and proper care for the victims. "Tuberculosis could be controlled if everyone would coop-erate by having periodic examinations for its presence and then if it were found, received proper care," the society said. Wisconsin now provides free sanatoroum care for state tuber-culosis victims who cannot afford to pay sanatorium bills. Chief diagnostic weapon in detecting tuberculosis is the X-Ray, discovered 51 years ago by Wilhelm Conrad Roentgen, Christmas Seal funds have purchased 190 X-Ray units now being used in the

War Gift Probe of Bilbo Opens

Senate Subcommittee Promises 'Fairness'

WASHINGTON - (U.P.) - A senate war investigating subcom-mittee today promised to proceed with an "open mind" as it began hearings on charges that Sen. Theodore G. Bilbo (D-Miss.) re-ceived gifts from war contractors. Subcommittee Chairman James M. Mead (D-N. Y.) promised Bu-bo that the group "approaches thus task with an open mind and with-out any preconceived conclusions." Winter Tests Planned for National Guard CHICAGO —(U.P.)— Lieut. Gen. Walton H. Walker, commanding general of the Fifth army, announced today that plans are being considered for training selected national guard units in mountain and winter maneuvers.

Walker said that under the proposed program the training would be given national guard units near mountainous or cold weather areas. The training, he said, would consist of cold weather tests and maneuvers under simulated bat-tle conditions in extreme weather.
