Two Mysteries Scheduled Will Open Monday at Lyric

"Lady Killer" and "Paris Underground" will be the features opening

Monday at the Lyne theatre The former film is of the type that the title suggests. The latter picture is the story of the heroic French who's belief in rights and freedom many times overcame the German dominance that prevailed in Germany during the reign of the Nazis.

Buit Lancaster, Ava Guidner and Edmond O'Buen are the timee new stars whose outstanding perionmances in "The Killers," Ernest Hemingway's short story now at the Ohio have brought in plaudits and more plaudits for them. The trio is composed of three of the most unusual people ever to be cast together in a film

Wallace Beery George Raft and Jackie Cooper bring 'The Bowery to the screen of the Quilna. That part of New York which bears this title will appear familiar to those who may have at one time seen that district while to others it may bring a sort of distaste

Gail Russell Clane Trever, Arm Dvorak and Adolphe Menjou com bine then talents in the film Bachelor Daughters to bring to the screen of the Sigma one of the funmest features ever to come from Hollywood. The film shares the billing with Journey To-

Dorothy McGune Guy Madison, Bill Williams and Robert Mitchum ere the stars of the State film, 'Till the End of Time," which has been haded as the most poignant love story to be fold about the war The story revolves about three discharged servicemen who are truing to find their wav back into civilian life

"Rough Riders of Cheyenne' and "Dakota' are the films now showing at the Allen while opening Wednesday will be "The Gang's All Here' and "The Lodger
