

Lou Costello Plays St. Nick On Thursday Comedy Show

Because Lou Costello has been such a good boy in fostering the Youth Foundation, whose first home he and his pal Bud Abbott will open in several weeks, Santa Claus picks Costello as his assistant in delivering toys, in the comedy broadcast at 10 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Too many cooks spoil the Christmas pastry, during "The Aldrich Revue" broadcast at 8 p. m. over NBC. Mrs. Aldrich's accumulation of candied fruits for her Yuletide fruit cake disappears quickly when Henry and his pal Homer swoop down on the party. Almost the entire town of Cent-comedy, "The Red Mill," will occupy the spotlight as guest star on the Music Hall show at 9 p. m. over NBC. The two Metropolitan Opera stars, lyric soprano Lucia Albanese and baritone Francesco Valentini, regular soloists of the "Treasure House of Song" series in previous seasons, will return for a guest appearance at 9:30 p. m. over NBC.

Singer Dick Haymes jumps feet-first into the Christmas season when his entire half-hour show at 9 p. m. over CBS is devoted to Santa Claus, caroling and a special pre-sung opera dedicated to children. Finnegan, starring Frank McHugh, is overcome by the Christmas spirit during "That's Fin-

HOT SPOT In one day, the Sahara desert receives three times as much solar energy as is contained in all the coal burned in the world in an entire year. South America has an area of almost seven million square miles.
